21st May, 1827.

IN consequence of the late regulations regarding the disposal of Lands in this Province, the Surveyor-General feels it his duty to request the attention of the gentlemen holding deputations under him, to the necessity of the immediate execution of those orders of survey, at present in their hands, and to an active and punctual performance of all future orders of survey; and it being a matter of extreme importance to the interests of those individuals to whom Lands have been allotted by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and His Majesty's Council, in conformity with the mode of granting Lands hitherto practised in the Colony, to be put without delay in possession of their Titles from the Crown, he trusts they will lose no moment when a Deputy notifies to them the receipt of an order of survey in their favor, in attending him to have it executed; and he begs at the same time to remind them that their failing to avail themselves of this communication will be entirely at their own risk.
