West Indies.—The London Gazette of Jan. 29, contains a Proclamation authorizing the export of fish and fruit from the island of Anguilla, in the West Indies, in vessels of the U. States, that arrive there in ballast, to take effect as soon as the same shall be made known to the Governor of St. Christopher.

The Governor of the Bahama Islands has opened them for the exportation of salt & fruit, in American vessels arriving in ballast. His Proclamation bears date 22d Feb. 1828.

St. Christopher, Jan. 1.

An important subject connected with the colonial interests, we understand, will shortly be submitted to the consideration of his Majesty's Government; namely, a proposal for "unrestricted trade between the British W. I. Colonies (having warehousing or free ports) & the British Fisheries and Provinces in N. American and Bermuda, by the removal of all duties on the import of sugar, rum and molasses, into the latter; also between the former and the ports of Germany, (Hamburg and Bremen) in the vessels of these States, importing the produce of Germany, in order to compensate the W. India Colonies for the loss of the trade with the United States of America.

St. Vincent, Dec. 5.

Whilst the Assembly was in Committee on the Transient traders' Bill, the Speaker said he intended to frame a Bill, to be introduced next quarterly meeting, laying a duty on the importation of all kinds of lumber and provisions, the productions of the Canadas, and of the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New-Brunswick; equal in amount to one half the duty now imposed on similar productions of the U. States. This duty to continue till His Excellency the Governor shall receive authentic information that the Legislatures of the British Provinces have repealed all duties imposed by them on sugar, rum, and molasses, the produce of this Colony. This the Speaker said, would be in strict conformity to Mr. Huskisson's plan of reciprocity in our intercourse with all countries. At present, heavy duties are levied in the Canadas and Nova Scotia on West India produce, in some cases almost amounting to a prohibition; while at the same time, their lumber and provision are admitted throughout these Colonies free of all impost whatever.

DIED,

On Thursday morning last, after a long and painful illness which he bore with christian fortitude, Mr. SAMUEL KENDALL, Jun., Druggist, aged 34 years. Mr. K. was a native of New Salem, Massachusetts, and during his residence in this place for upwards of eight years, his character was unblemished and irreproachable. His remains were followed to the grave by an unusual large procession, consisting of his Masonic Brethren, and a numerous collection of friends and acquaintances, attended by the full band of the 81st Regiment. Few men had warmer friends, and perhaps very few lived more deserving of them. Urbanity of manners and purity of conduct marked his course through life. Kind, affable, and charitable, his memory will be long cherished by his Masonic Brethren, in whose Society he was a bright ornament, and his loss much regretted by the inhabitants of this town, both as regards his obliging deportment and assiduous attendance in business.

"The memory of the just shall be blessed."

Communicated.
