MANIFESTO OF THE EMPEROR OF THE RUSSIAS.

By the Grace of God We, Nicholas 1. Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russias, &c.

The Treaty of Bucharest, concluded in the year 1812, with the Ottoman Porte, after having been for 16 years the subject of reiterated disputes, now no longer subsists, in spite of all our exertions to maintain it and to preserve it from all attacks. The Porte not satisfied with having destroyed the basis of that Treaty, now defies Russia, and prepares to wage against it a bellum ad internecionem; it summonses its people in a mass to arm; accuses Russia of being its irreconcilable 2 onemy; and tramples under foot the Convention of Akerman, and, with that, all preceding Treaties. Lastly the Porte does not hesitate to declare that it accepted the conditions 2 10 0 of this peace only as a mask to conceal its intentions and its preparations for a new war. Scarcely is this remarkable confession made, when the rights of the Russian flag are violated, the vessels which it covers detained, and the cargoes made a prey of a rapacious and arbitrary Government .- Our subjects found themselves compelled to break their oath, or to O leave without delay a bostile country. The Bosphorus is closed-our trade annihilated. Our Southern provinces deprived of the only channel for the exportation of their produce, are threatened with incalculable injury. Nay, more : at the moment when the negociations between Russia and Persia are nearly concluded, a sudden change on the part of the Persian Government checks the course of them. It soom appears that the Ottoman Porte exerts itself to make Persia 0 6 waver, by promising powerful aid, arming in haste the troops in the adjoining provinces, and preparing to support by a threatening attack, this treacherous hostile language. This is the series of injuries of which Turkey has been guilty, from the conclusion of the treaty of Akerman, up to this day; and this is, unhappily, the fruit of the sacrifices and the gene-I rous exertions by which Russia has incessantly endeavoured
