

country by the Hermes steamer, which brought the last Mediterranean mails. It consists of between 50 and 60 superb shawls, woven in the looms of Shiraz and Isfahan, and exhibiting proofs of skill and taste that fully authorize the Shah to anticipate a favorable reception for the "rich gifts" he has transmitted. The borders of some exhibit, in all their details, a triumphal procession; trains of camels and Arab steeds, sumptuously compared; elephants carrying palanquins, musicians gathered in groups, and the countless attendants of many mighty chiefs, being all portrayed with equal fidelity and splendor. These striking and complicated objects are woven in the most exquisite colors, with perfect accuracy of outline, and present a combination of forms and hues blended into one great ensemble of beauty, with which the workmanship of Europe would, perhaps, strive in vain to compete.

Yesterday morning, Mrs. Elizabeth Beek, wife of Joseph Beek, Esquire, of this place, in the 58th year of her age, much regretted by her relatives and numerous friends. During the short period of her illness, she shewed, by a calm and patient submission to the Divine will, that the faith which had supported her under all the trials of life had remained unshaken in the prospect of dissolution.

On Monday morning last, William, infant son of Mr. John R. Roberts, aged 6 months.

At Saint John, on Monday morning, the 6th inst., after a very severe illness of eleven days, Mrs. Margaret Whipple, wife of A. W. Whipple, Esquire, and daughter of W. E. N.
