

notice of bringing the same on to be heard, and shall neglect to appear at the hearing, the cause may be ordered to be dismissed.

34. That if the Plaintiff neglect to bring on the cause to a hearing at the earliest period at which, by the practice of the Court, the same might be heard, the Defendant may obtain an order upon affidavit of the state of the cause, and of such default on the part of the Plaintiff, that he may be at liberty to bring the same to hearing; and if the Defendant shall thereupon serve such order, set down the cause, and give notice to the Plaintiff fourteen days before the day of hearing, and the Plaintiff shall not appear at the hearing, the Bill may be ordered to stand dismissed.

35. That when any specified time is, by the practice of this Court, allowed or prescribed for the taking of any step in the progress of proceedings therein, it shall always be computed exclusively of the day from which such time commences.

36. That in every cause for an injunction to stay proceedings at Law, if the Defendant do not plead answer or demur to the Plaintiff's Bill within ten days after service of a copy of the Plaintiff's Bill, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to such injunction, as of course, upon motion.

37. That at each Term such day or days shall be appointed for the sitting of the Court, during the ensuing Vacation, as the Master of the Rolls shall deem proper, which shall be published in the Royal Gazette on the week next after the Term.

38. That the foregoing orders do take effect upon and after the first day of July next, and not sooner.

J. HARVEY, Chancellor.
