

goons, commanded by Major McGrath. Flood, it is said, has been for some time in close correspondence with parties in the United States, to whom he regularly communicated whatever came under his notice of the movements in Upper Canada. The circumstances which led to the discovery of this diabolical conspiracy, were accidental. In prosecuting a search for some petty offender, Flood's lodgings were examined, when on raising an old cap, the papers which led to the disclosure of the plot, were discovered, and brought before the Executive Council, by whom he has been twice examined.—Montreal Gazette.

Accounts from Mexico represent that the Treaty of Peace between France and that republic, concluded through the mediation of Great Britain and under the auspices of the British Minister, Mr. Packenham, to have been fully ratified and confirmed. This is certainly very favorable intelligence, and we are highly gratified that England has been the fortunate agent in this affair. How noble does a great country appear when thus exerting herself to restore peace and harmony among the nations of the earth.—New York Alliance.
