not been for the wind subsiding, the fire must | To the Nobility and Gentry of have extended to Mam Charley's. Our city has the appearance of an old building, as nothing is standing but chimneys.

Another account states that the Episcopal Church, as well as the Catholic, was burnt .-The fire is said to have been the work of incenof a mile square.

YET ANOTHER DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN MOBILE.

We recorded this morning the destruction immediate attention. of 500 or 600 houses in Mobile on the night of the 7th inst. They were mostly small, and the damage is estimated in the Mobile papers at only $120,000. In prosperous times, we are FREDERICTON & MIRRAMECER. told, the destruction of these houses would hardly have been deemed a calamity to the city; but at present, the case is otherwise.

Letters of the 9th inst. announce the occurfew buildings, caused a much greater loss of loss by this fire at $750,000. The Bank building alone cost about $200,000. The two Hotels were also expensive and valuable buildings. -N. Y. Journal of Commerce.
