

For the Prisoner—R. Bayard and R. L. Hazen, Esquires.

Noble has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of ten pounds; Corroll to six months' imprisonment.

Although the Court has been sitting a fortnight, about thirty of the fifty-seven civil cases on the docket are yet undisposed of.

Tuesday the 17th September, is, we learn, the day appointed for opening the Court at Kingston, for the trial of the four persons charged with the murder of Bernard Coyle, at the house of Mr. T. Ferguson, in King's County.

ORDINATION.—James Disbrow, B. A. of King's College, Fredericton, (son of N. Disbrow, Esq. of this City,) was ordained by the Bishop of London, in St. Paul's Cathedral, on the 26th of May last.

CASE OF RESUSCITATION.—On Monday last, a Seaman belonging to the brig Sassa Maria Brooks, while assisting in a boat belonging to that vessel in carrying out a kedge anchor, was thrown overboard by a turn of the hawser catching his leg, and carried down with the anchor.

On Thursday evening last, the Centenary of Wesleyan Methodism, which had been lately celebrated in most of the populous towns and cities in England, and which has excited so much interest and elicited such noble exhibitions of Christian liberty, was held in the old Methodist Chapel in this town.

No collection was made, but all was left to the spontaneous operation of the voluntary principle, and the result, as was the case in England, showed that it only requires proper principles and motives to be in operation, to stimulate to suitable and corresponding results.

The Exchange Register this morning contains the following report of the relief of His Excellency Lieut. General Sir John Colborne in the Administration of the Civil Government of this Province; we believe the report is, in the main correct, and that His Excellency will with the Government relinquish also the Military Command.

Other reports go further, and name the Earl of Clarendon as the successor of Sir John Colborne. We know not on what ground the nomination of his Lordship to this high and important office is founded, but there are circumstances, particularly the recall of the Noble Earl from Madrid, where he was Ambassador, which render it far from improbable that he is the statesman selected for this arduous task.

There is a rumour afloat in Military circles that the 19th and 42d Regts. of Infantry are to be sent to Canada, either in the course of the present season or in the ensuing spring, to relieve the 11th and 15th Regiments, whose service abroad has now exceeded the usual term assigned for foreign service.

Nearly all the papers of the town have described the melancholy and fearful occurrence which took place opposite the North Barrack gate, last Thursday morning, by which a young man, James Bossom, shoemaker, in the hey day of youth, was precipitated into eternity.

The following gentlemen of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick had the honor of being presented to the Queen at the Levee on the 26th June last.

The Honorable Alexander Stewart, Member of the Legislative Council of Nova Scotia, by the Marquis of Normandy.

stated, or to administer unnecessary excitement to the public mind, which is already in a ferment with the melancholy details of the transaction.

Mr. William Young, Member of Assembly of Nova Scotia, by the Marquis of Normandy. Ensign Edward Warwick Harvey, on his appointment to the 36th foot, by his uncle Viscount Lake.

The Minutes of the N. B. Estey, in Saint John, and the remainder at the Store of Messrs. J. & A. Smith in Fredericton.

At Sheffield, on the 14th inst., Catherine Ann, third daughter of Mr. James Hamilton, aged nine years, after a severe illness, much regretted by her parents and associates.

DREADFUL OCCURRENCE.—On yesterday morning the usual tranquility of the town was much disturbed by a very lamentable occurrence. James Bossom, shoemaker, in Almarie street, was shot by S. D. Clarke, who also kept a shop, opposite the North Barrack.

On Wednesday evening Bannister and Elton went to Bossom's shop, a quarrel and fight ensued between Bannister and Bossom. On Wednesday night Clarke loaded a brace of pistols with ball, and said that if Bossom came near his door he would put the contents of one of them in him.
