

Supplement to the Royal Gazette, 8th April 1840.

Died.

On Saturday last, in the twelfth year of her age, Lillias McCorkendale, fourth daughter of the late James Muir, of Ayr, Scotland.
Yesterday Morning, after an illness of about an hour, Anne Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. John Witham, aged 3 years and 7 months.

FREDERICTON FLORAL AND Horticultural Society.

THE Subscribers of the above Society are hereby informed that the Legislature having been pleased, with their usual good judgment and liberality, to grant the sum of Thirty Pounds in aid of the Society's funds, the Committee of Management have therefore directed to be immediately imported, a large assortment of Fruit Trees, Flowers, Flowering Shrubs, &c. of such choice varieties as they trust will prove both useful and ornamental. That on their arrival they will, with a Catalogue, be exhibited at Mr. Watts' Garden, where Members will be supplied therefrom, under the direction of the Committee of Management (at costs and charges,) in such proportion as will ensure a fair distribution to all. But in order to participate in this advantage, it will be requisite that the subscriptions for the present year, as well as all arrears, be previously paid to the Society's Treasurer; and the public at large are now invited to support the Institution, by becoming Members, and thereby extending its usefulness throughout the Province.

By order of the President.
GEORGE LEE, JUN.

KING'S COLLEGE, FREDERICTON,
March 9, 1840.

TWO Scholarships will be offered to general competition in the College Library, on Wednesday, June the 24th, at ten in the forenoon.

The one is proposed to candidates who shall have been already matriculated. They will be examined in Xenophon's Anabasis, Horace, English and Latin Composition, Ancient History and Geography, the first six books of Euclid, the first part of Algebra, and the elements of Inorganic Chemistry.

The other is proposed to such as shall not have been matriculated; who will be examined in the first six books of Homer's Iliad, Caesar's Commentaries, the principles of Greek and Latin Grammar, English History, Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, and the first four books of Euclid.

The Scholarships are of Twenty Five Pounds per annum each, to be held to the expiration of the third year from the day of matriculation. They will be awarded to the candidates who shall discover the greatest proficiency in the several subjects of examination, without reference to their place of previous education, or the religious denomination to which they may belong.
