

It was highly pleasing to all those who are connected with the College to observe that, while none of the branches of instruction appeared to have been at all neglected, the wish of the College Council—that particular attention should be paid to mathematics—had been very diligently and successfully attended to. In that subject several of the elder Scholars bore a long questioning from Mr. Professor Jack, both in Algebra, and in Geometry, including Trigonometry, so as to draw forth commendation from that Gentleman, in which all present seemed fully to concur.

The monthly inspection of this School by a Committee appointed by the College Council, consisting of the Professors of the College and other Gentlemen, appears to have produced the good effects anticipated from it.

GEORGE F. STREET,
College Registrar.

Fredericton, Dec. 22, 1840.

When about to depart from the above mentioned Examination, His Excellency expressed himself highly pleased with the state of the School, and much gratified by the great improvement that had taken place since he last visited it. He said that of all the public institutions in the Province over which he presided, there were none in which he was more warmly interested than in those which had for their object the instruction of the rising generation; that in this School he took a peculiar interest, on account of its immediate connexion with King's College, and that he felt it to be a subject of personal congratulation to himself, that the seat of Government was so well provided with the means of fitting its youth to fill the various walks of life with respectability, and of sending them to the higher establishments thoroughly qualified to seize at once upon all the advantages that institution was so well calculated to bestow.

His Excellency then complimented Mr. Roberts, the Principal, upon the success that had evidently attended his labours, and concluded with expressing a hope that the youth present would duly appreciate the opportunities of improvement they enjoyed.

Some discussion having lately arisen out of an arrangement between the Central Bank of this place, and the St. Croix Bank, of Calais, by which the latter has put in circulation Cheques to be redeemed by the former at Fredericton, we are authorized to state that the Directors of the Central Bank have given notice to the St. Croix Bank to prohibit the issuing of any more such Cheques.

Extract of a Letter from Montreal, dated 1st December.

The expedition of Officers belonging to the Guards and other corps in this Province, which started some time ago to enjoy the chase in the Prairies of the far West, has returned after a very successful hunt, having killed 120 Buffaloes. They reached as far as the head of the River Platte, about 800 miles west of the Mississippi. They enjoyed very good health, with the exception of Colonel Greenwood who had been ill, but who has completely recovered. From the Indians they met with friendly treatment, but on their way to Philadelphia they were deprived by some hungry loafer of the salted Buffalo tongues, and other precious morsels with which they intended to regale their Quebec friends, who, in consequence, will have to satisfy themselves with the intention, and suppose when carrying the ox tongues that they are those of the Buffalo. One Officer also lost his valuable wardrobe at the same time; but had luckily before starting, in the morning, taken out his pocket book with a considerable sum of money in it.
