PROSPECTUS.

THE MONTHLY REVIEW,
DEVOTED TO THE
CIVIL GOVERNMENT OF THE CANADAS.

THE Canadas have been united under an amended constitution—the foundation has been laid for an improved system of government. The success of that constitution will greatly depend upon a correct understanding and a just appreciation of its principles; and the advantages of the new system of government will be essentially influenced by the views and feelings of the inhabitants of the Canadas themselves. At a period so eventful, and under circumstances so peculiar, it is of the utmost importance that the principles of the constitution should be carefully analysed, and dispassionately expounded; that the relations between this and the mother country, and the mutual advantages connected with those relations, should be explained and illustrated; the duties of the several branches of the government and the different classes of the community stated and enforced; the natural, commercial, and agricultural resources and interests of these provinces investigated and developed; a comprehensive and efficient system of public education discussed and established; the subject of emigration practically considered in proportion to its vast importance; the various measures adapted to promote the welfare of all classes of the people originated and advocated; and a taste for intellectual improvement and refinement encouraged and cultivated.

Such are the objects of the MONTHLY REVIEW; objects which it is intended to pursue with views and feelings as unbiased and comprehensive as those of the government itself. Such a publication is a desideratum in the Canadas. The subjects to which its pages will be devoted require, at the present juncture, a more elaborate discussion than is suitable to the columns of a newspaper, and ought to be embodied in a convenient and permanent form. The topics discussed, and the subjects introduced, will become more varied as the immediate objects which have called the publication into existence shall have been accomplished. A monthly retrospect of public affairs, containing notices and observations respecting the measures of the government, and the leading events and questions of the day, will appear in each number.

The MONTHLY REVIEW will, for the time present, be conducted under the supervision of JOHN WADSWORTH, Esquire, late Editor of The Upper Canada Herald, assisted by several able writers in the two Canadas. A general invitation is also given to Gentlemen of talents and acquirements to contribute to the columns of the REVIEW. Each number will contain from 60 to 80 pages, royal octavo, double columns, small type and fine English paper. Each volume will contain not far from seven hundred pages, and furnish about as much reading matter as is contained in three common octavo volumes of five hundred pages each.

TERMS.—Price 20s. per year, including postage, payable in advance. As the work is undertaken with no view to emolument, it will be enlarged and improved in proportion to the amount of available subscriptions. It will not be sent to any Subscriber without payment of six months subscription in advance. No subscription received for less than six months. All Post Masters are respectfully requested to act as Agents. Any Post Master or other person forwarding the names of six Subscribers, with the subscriptions, will receive a copy, gratis, during the same period. The first number will appear on the first day of January, 1841. All communications must be addressed to the Editor of the MONTHLY REVIEW, Toronto, and be post paid.

The Editor is permitted and authorised to add, that the MONTHLY REVIEW has been undertaken with the sanction and under the patronage of HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL; although the writers alone will be responsible for the matter which it may contain. Toronto, Nov. 4, 1840.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Adhering to the statements contained in the above Advertisement, notwithstanding a most vile and unjustifiable attack upon me by a person signing himself "W. Dunbar," and believing that subjects of so grave a nature are not to be adjusted by a newspaper advertising controversy, I would again repeat my caution to my patrons and friends about the hurtful insinuations and charges of men who are industriously striving to supplant me, and also to bribe and corrupt my agents.—Every statement made in that communication I am prepared to give a satisfactory solution of before any impartial tribunal; nor shall I be wanting to take such measures for this purpose, to which a sense of justice prompts me. A residence of twenty-four years in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick has given the public a good opportunity of estimating of what my character is composed; this, with a consciousness of my own integrity and honesty, leads me to believe they will place that importance to these singular attacks which they justly deserve.
