alteration may be made in the Customs Act as will allow of the importation into New Brunswick, duty free, of Flour and Salted Provisions.

I will not fail to call the attention of the Secretary of State to this subject, and to recommend that the trade of New Brunswick in these articles should be placed on a footing as favour able as that of any other Colony in British North America.

But I entertain a decided objection to effecting this object by a forced interpretation of the clause, permitting the importation duty free, of articles used in the Fisheries.

That manner of proceeding has been attended with great loss to the Province, and inconvenience in Nova Scotia, and I accordingly, during Saint John, an absconding debtor, and have been my stay in that Province, recommended to the duly sworn to the faithful execution of the said trust Secretary of State an alteration of the Law and practice in this respect.
