His Excellency was evidently much affected truth of the assertion, and I speak from a know- in pursuance of my first remark conclude, and America was there held out the offer of a more by the manner in which this toast was received, ledge of the facts, that there never was a public it only remains for me to return my sincere extensive, a more English-like, and a more usehe began by observing, that having lived most man who conducted public affairs with motives thanks for the honor that has just been in so [ful education: he had to regret, however, that happily together for upwards of a third of a cen- more honest, pure and upright, than did my flattering a manner done to the Bench and heretofore the desire to take advantage of all the tury, the company would not feel surprised if highly respected and esteemed friend Sir A. the Bar of the Province. kindness evinced towards one should deeply Campbell while administering the Government 15. The President th affect the other. He then related a circum- of this Province. His sole object was the prostance which occurred when His Excellency motion of the welfare and prosperity of the was in command of a Regiment in the Garrison colony over which he presided, and he still takes Saint George's Society of Fredericton, rose and lege, had been assented to by the Representaof Dublin, upwards of thirty years ago, by a warm interest therein ; though separated from saidwhich the conduct of the 42d Highlanders, in us by the Atlantic ocean, and retired from pubrelation to Lady Harvey, was placed in a point lie life, still he shews the kindest feeling and of view so honorable, so worthy of a nation attention to all his old acquaintances here, Society of Fredericton was extinct, as it cer. College of Fredericton would yet prove the Campbell, Wm. Corrie, John Coffee, George emphatically styled by George the Fourth, a whenever chance throws them in his way, and tainly has not been much heard of for the last means of disseminating, sound education and Currier, Hannah Coursar, Catharine Coulter, Nation of Gentlemen, as to call forth the loud-est cheers. His Excellency ended in the fol-ing opportunities afforded him, of evincing the lowing words,-But I have touched upon a lively interest he still takes in our prosperity. again in all its pristine prosperity, but as to Loud and enthusiastic cheering marked the Carey, George Clarke, Currier & Tredwell, chord which vibrates painfelly, let me then I could dilate at much greater length on this myself I have been so often at the celebration of delivery of the foregoing Speeches. conclude by saying-there are, I may say, four subject, but I have so o'ten before been called Sr. Andrew's anniversary, and mixed so much of my sons who now hear me, and on their part on to return thanks in this place, for the same with the members of that society, that I almost various volunteer toasts, appropriate speeches, I will take upon myself to say, (in allusion to a compliment paid to the same distinguished begin to doubt whether I did not belong to and Scotch Songs. The most perfect harmony Scotch Song which he had before quoted) that [friend, and have so often expressed his senti- you, and whether I am not a son of St. Andrew and good feeling characterized the night, and Dow, Nancy Donavan, Eliza Daly, Henry if the occasion should arrive they will be found ments at large thereon, that it would appear instead of St. George, but indeed when I look the last of the Company retired for their home ready "to fight for their Queen as their father like needless repetition for me to say more. I around the room, and see in the decorations the at about one o'clock, highly delighted with as done." may say that nearly all present know what my emblems of both St. George and St. Patrick, themselves and pleased with one another. .has done."

dially drank.

one of the Stewards, to return thanks on be-Stewards, when Mr. Kerr responded :---

Mr. President, in obedience to your call. I beg, on behalf of the President, Vice-Pre- warm interest in the affairs of this Province, played on so appropriate an occasion as this, their presence here this evening.

For those for whom I answer, it is right I Douglass and Sir A. Campbell, and in their George, in which I hold a high office. should remark, Sir, that though less forward in names, to return my best thanks, first to the Mr. Gowan next gave the Militia of expression, yet not less forward in duty than President, for the handsome and complimentary vince; when the Solicitor General ag myself, have they all b en, in ende avouring to remarks made by him in giving the Toast, and and saidmake the occasion an agreeable one for His to the company for the highly flattering and As it seems the Company look to the Excellency and our guests who have so kindly enthusiastic manner in which it was received. Senior Officer in the Militia now pre Lonored us with their company, and I can truly say, that if anything could have added to the pleasure of seeing them here, it is the very coarteous Cairnes, and the gallant 36th. This Regim't. in the Militia, I cannot but feel that I and agreeable manner in which they have con-tributed towards this evening's entertainment. three years, and we can all bear witness, not I hold, calls for my acquiring; but in Our Society is indeed formed for charitable only to the high state of military discipline avocations are so numerous, that I h purposes, but it is said that " Charity is kind," displayed by the corps, but also to the gentle- been able to give sufficient time for and if so, I am sure it must delight in the plea- manly bearing of its officers, and orderly con- am sorry therefore that it has not it sant party here together. As the emblems have duct of its men. On an occasion, not long some one more conversant in the been alluded to, I will merely observe, that I since, when we had every reas on to expect an than myself to acknowledge the honor hope I may very often see assembled here, invasion of our rights as British subjects, at that body, at the same time, when I look round the "Sons of the Thames, the Tweed, and an inclement season of the year, in the depth the table, and see of whom the company prethe Shannon,"-in social company-with of winter, and without a murmur, they marched sent is generally composed, it appears to me "Saint George, Saint Patrick, and Saint at the word of command to the frontier, ready that little need be said in the way of thanks to Andrew," as now, apparently looking on us, to protect our lives and property ; thanks to the ourselves for drinking our own healths, for and smiling approbation on our social convi- well organized arrangements of His Excellen- with few exceptions, I believe we are, or ought viality-that in point of harmony, the Rose, cy, their further services on that occasion were to be, all Militiamen; indeed I look upon the Thistle, and the Shamrock may long grow, not required, but their merit was not the less, every civilian in the Country, if a British suband bloom, and flourish together; and if at any and with such a bright example before us, ect, a Militiaman, unless superannuated or time, Sir, we can contribute to this object, 1 with so gallant a corps to assist, and teach us under age; and if I can judge from what I am sure we will all delight in the office of it. how to fight, we need never fear the invasion see, there are none of either of those exempt I hope we may often meet our friends again, of a foreign foe. and afford them forther opportunities for wishing "the good health of the President, Vice- the evening, this toast was responded to by Dr lian will be ready to shoulder his musket and President, and Stewards of the Saint Andrews Scott, in a neat and appropriate speech. Society."

toast I propose is-Lady Harvey and Family, with me in opinion on that point, but I will those of the present day. I will not trespass a Royal and a popular foundation. He, (P. may health and happiness ever attend them. assert, and I pledge my own character for the upon the patience of the company further; but R.) felt sure that no where in British North declared enjoyed a most gratifying 'treat, His chibald stands in the estimation of his country me that the sons of St. Andrew feel, that the Excellency in few but emphatic words, highly for his valuable services, therefore any thing others are truly their brethren, and though complimentary to the style of decoration and I could say more on this head would be super- differing in the names of their Patron Saints, excellence of the entertainment, and to the un- fluous; but having said this much for Sir A. yet as British subjects, there should be no difwearied exertions and attention of the Presi- Campbell, I cannot sit down without also ad- ference in feelings of patriotism, for the one dent, Vice President and Stewards to the ding a few words on the part of Sir H. Douglas, general Mother Country of them all, and that Guests, proposed their health, which was cor- who was also included in the Toast, and whom I when occasion calls for it, they are ready to have also the honor of calling my friend, and unite and assemble, shoulder to shoulder in The President called on D. S. Kerr, Esq., for whom I feel a very high respect and esteent. Dathe, to detend, or other display their common pact, as one body, to display their common is a structure thanks on he. I likewise know that Sir Howard, notwithstandhalf of the President, Vice-President, and ing the multifarious matters that occupy his feeling of loyalty to their Sovereign, and at-Stewards, when Mr. Kerr responded :--Ionian Isles, continues to take a lively and pride and pleasure in seeing such a feeling dis-

Societies here and elsewhere. Land Mace

not and can not belong to the Militia service, I have thought it right to thank them, which I do most sincerely, for the hearty manner in which they have joined in drinking the Professor Robb, in returning thanks, took occasion to remark that, after the toasts consecrated to Her Majesty the Queen, and to His Exellency the Lieutenant Governor, he knew of one which was better received in a Society of Scotchmen than one which like the last implied

the manner in which the toast had been received.

lrank :--

The College of New Brunswick having been sident, and Stewards of the Society, to return to His Excellency, and our much respected Not long since I received letters from him, in Province, has so readily and condescendingly guests, our warmest acknowledgements for the which he enquired most particularly after vari- acceeded to your wishes in coming down and very kind manner in which they have drank ous persons he had known, when here, and in a mixing with you in the festivities of the day; I our healths, and to assure them, that though I way that shewed it was not as a matter of form, hope it is a precedent that will be followed, and may inadequately acknowledge, yet we all justly but as arising from the sincere and warm interest in conclusion I beg the Gentlemen present to can in future be paid at this Office, at the rate appreciate, the high honor conferred on us by he takes in their welfare. I will therefore con- accept of my best thanks for the honor they of 1s. 2d. Sterling or 1s. 4d. Currency per 1 clude by begging on the part of both Sir II. have done to the Fredericton Societ

12. The President next said, it is with much return thanks, I will do so, at the sam pleasure I propose the next toast to Major must observe that although I hold so classes present. I feel that whenever the de-benefits derivable from such an Institution was the more to be wondered at, as all the arrange-The Solicitor General, on the part of the ments connected with the opening of the Coltives of the people. Much good, however, was Brewer, Watter Britt, (2,) David Burpie. Mr. President,-If I were to sit silent now, it doing, and much more was to be expected. might indeed be supposed that the St. George's He felt confident that, under Providence, the

The remainder of the evening was spent in

KING'S COLLEGE, DEC. 8, 1840.

The Terminal Examination of the College will be held on Wednesday the 16th inst. at 11 o'clock in the forenoon; and the Examination of the Collegiate School, on Monday the 21st, at the same hour.

IN THE SUPREME COURT.

MICHAELMAS TERM, 4th VICTORIA, 1840. It is Ordered, That Tuesday the fifth day of January next, be appointed for the examination of Stu-lents applying to be admitted Attornies at the ensu-ng Hilary Term—to be holden at the residence of Mr. Justice Parker, in St. John.

HE whole Postage on Letters for the Uni-ted Kingdom, forwarded via Halifax,

P. M. State fo Th neter at от ш - со со б - 10, р. м. N.W. Wind. from

POST OFFICE. Fredericton, Dec. 5, 1840.

List of Letters remaining in Office at this date

John Barry, James Barker, Domanick Bradley, Mary Ann Burns, John Barker, Susan 15. The President then gave our Sister not so general as he could wish, and this was Bartlett, John Banks, Isaac Blether, Wm. H. Barneby, Bridget Borland, Duncan Barber, (2,) Lawerence Bent, Messrs. J. & A. Blake, Nathaniel Blake, Susanah Bradley, M. A.

> Wm. Clarke, James Campbell, (2,) Wm. Carvell, Joseph Corning, John Cocklan, Peter Richard Carman.

> Daniel Donavan, Michael Driscoll, Robert Davis, Isaac Devin, Andrew Doherty, Jacob Deveber.

Thomas Edgar, Wm. Esty, Samuel Esty, Wm. Egan.

John N. Foster, Wm. Friar, Edward Farrell, James Faulkner, Mary Foirley. G

Wm. Graham, Wm. Grieves, Jas. Gallens, Capt. James Hartley, Thomas Gill, (2,) Hillare, Gagnon, James Groves, Nehemiah Gilman, Thomas Gault, Joseph Gilman, John S. Gilman, Jane Gagnon, James Gorden, Joseph Gibson, Denis Godfrey, George Garner.

Thomas Hartin, John Hayes, (2,) Ebenezar Hirtin, James Harrison, Benjamin Hanson, Michael Hilly, (2,) James Hayes, George Hickson, Daniel Hossack, George Haines, Aaron Hart, Thomas Heney, Wm. Harper, Mary Horrigan, Bartlett Hallett, George W. Hamilton.

1& J

Able S. Jordon, Lieut. Jouette, Charles Ingraham, John Irving, Samuel Jouett, Chas. Jamison, James Ingledco, Sophia Jackson.

James Kelcher, John Kingston, Patrick Kelly, Cornelius Keohane, W. Kirk, Mary Ann Keeley, Mr. P. Kay.

Rev. W. Leggett, Miss Jane Longhry, Andrew Love, John Leslie, William Lewis, Thomas Little, James Longey. M & Mc. .

Messrs. Miles & Smith, (9,) Anthony M'Mahon, (2,) J. & D. Murphy, Richard M'Keen, Lejance M'Crae, Thos. M'Greery, Robt. Michael, Edward Mann, Samuel M'Nutt, J. Mullins, Catherine Mullin, F. Miller, J. L. Marsh, Geo. Marsh, James Moody, John Morrell, Michael Molloy, Robt. M'Laughlan, Cornels. Macdonnell, Edward M'Cole, John Murphy, Betty Melhollan, Andrew Murray.

N Chas. Nevers, Wm. S. Nevers.

Robt. O'Kane.

Eber. Porter, Richard Pugh, Jas. Petty, Samuel Peters, David Pickard.

0

R Robt. Rosborough, Ally Roen, Thos. Reid, as. Reed, Mrs. Rogers, Bryan Rody, Wm. Roberts, D. Riordan.

W. BOTSFORD, J. CARTER, R. PARKER. ----

POST OFFICE NOTICE.

y of St. the Pro- gain rose ne as the esent, to ne time 1 ome rank ain very the rank	WM. B. PHAIR, Fredericton, Nov. 17, 1840.
	- Below Zern	Day. 1 Tuesday, 2 Wednesday, 3 Thursday, 4 Friday, 5 Saturday, 6 Sunday, 7 Monday,	I DESCRIPTION OF THE OWNER OF THE OWNER
have not it, and I	Lern.	$12 \ \odot 0 \ \odot $ fallen to subject done to		22 57 12 12 20 50 50 Noon.

His Excellency then retired, the whole Com- of New Brunswick. pany rising and loudly cheering. His Excel- 14. The President then said, that the next lency evidently entered fully into the festivity of Toast he had to offer, was-The Bench and the evening, and on leaving, commended in Bar of New Branswick, and prefaced it with flattering terms, the superior style in which Mr. the following remarks. We must all admit, and Mrs. Jackson had prepared the Dinner. 11. The President again addressed the Com- lection that has been made of those persons pany as follows :-- I am sure there is not a whose duty it is to see, even and impartial single member of this Society who will refuse to justice, administered to all alike, and it is due do honor to this toast, which is dedicated to to those Gentlemen who fill the high and imour patrons, Sir H. Douglas and Sir A. Camp. portant offices of Judges of this Land, to say, bell, Scotsmen by birth as well as in feeling, that not here, on this side of the Atlantic, will Both these distinguished officers have in their we find men whose talents more eminent turn administered the Government of this Pro. qualify them, for the discharge of that impor vince, and are known to most of us,-both tant trust, than do those of the Honorable have played their parts in the drama of life, not Gentlemen who now fill the Bench of this only with credit to themselves but with honor to Province, and we seldom see more legal abilitheir country. Under the patronage of the ties and gentlemanly bearing combined, than former was founded and endowed the first and is displayed generally by the Members of the conly Academical Institution in this Province, Bar. one which bids fair to result in a blessing to the country; and the Hero of Bermah will created him a host of friends .- With these few which I have the honor to belong, is composed He felt pleasure in having it in his power to remarks I give yon, gentlemen-patrons of our Society.

compliment (paid to Sir A. Campbell in his ab- manner, by so large and respectable a company misplaced. sence) to pass without making some acknow- as are here present, is to both the Bench and He recollected well how, that before coming

The gallant Major having retired early in fence of the country is called for, every civi-13. The Church of Scotland, and the Clergy toast.

The Solicitor General rose to return thanks. been most dear, and the applause of the Sons highest bidder, as provided by the Bye Laws. The He said, I do not rise to make a long speech of Saint Andrew this evening, were but an echo long be remembered in this community, where as it must be borne in recollection, that the of the sentiments entertained by Scotchmen in his sterling worth and honest integrity have profession to which the Toast applies and to all quarters of the Globe.

of men of very few words, and therefore the say that two of the Chairs in King's College Our Countrymen, Lieutenants General Sir shorter the speech the more appropriate. I am were filled by Scotchmen; and after thanking Howard Douglas, and Sir A. Campbell, the sure the company will judge it to be to the sub- the Chairman for the honorable mention which ject. Indeed the very complimentary and had been made of his own services, he assured

The Solicitor General rose to return thanks, handsome remarks, with which the Chairman those around him on the part of all teachers that Mr. President,-I have often said in this has introduced the Toast, leaves me but little no exertions on their part should be spared to place, and again repeat the remark, that I to say, more than assuring you how highly gra- prove that the confidence of those who placed could never when present allow such a public tifying a compliment, paid in so flattering a their sons under their superintendance was not ledgement on his behalf justice I did I am sure the Bar and to myself in particular. As to the to this Province, it had been remarked to him I would not be doing if, for to the feelings of Bench, in addition to what has just fallen from by one of the most distinguished Professors in that distinguished individual or fulfilling the my worthy friend, your President, I can with one of the most distinguished Universities in duties of a friend. It could never be said that sincerity say, that I do not believe any part of Scotland, that there always had been more Sir A. Campbell was wanting a friend in this her Majesty's Dominions could produce four Students at his Class from New Brunswick, Province to retarn thanks for him to any pub-lic compliment so flatteringly bestowed. I feel Judges, than now fill the Bench of the Supreme rica together. This was high praise, and he proud in calling myself the friend of that emi- Court of this Province, which secures to the had no doubt but that the Province would strive nent man, and I feel not only highly honored, people at large, a truly impartial administration to retain the pre-eminence which it had thus but deeply gratified, in being allowed to reckon of Justice, the greatest blessing the country early acquired. On examining for himself, he him among my friends, and one too, for whom I could enjoy; and as to the Bar, it is not for found that the grants of money towards the feel the highest respect, the sincerest esteem, and me who am myself holding a high rank in that support of a Collegiate Establishment had been the warmest friendship; sentiments that were en- body, to say much, as I feel that were I to do more liberally made by the Legislature of New gendered in my breast, not merely from personal so, it might look like a desire in me to hold Brunswick, than by that of any of the other favors bestowed on myself, but from having forth in praise of myself and my brethren; but British North American Colonies. He found served under him while he was Governor of this this I may with safety say, without fear of that the people had authorized their Represen-Province, in situations that enabled me to form misconstruction, I feel it an honor to belong to tatives to offer to the Home Government the perhaps a more correct judgment than any other that body, from the character for independance means of building and endowing a College, person present, not only of his excellent quali- and integrity coupled with ability, the Frater- modelled after those of England, and calculaties as a private individual, but of the purity nity have hitherto maintained in the country, ted to secure the inestimable advantages of a and integrity of his conduct as a public man. which has secured to them the respect and con- good education to their Sons, and to their Sons I know this is not a time, nor would it be in fidence of their fellow subjects, and I believe Sons, as long as it should last. This offer was good taste, to make any allusion to the policy and hope that the younger members of the pro- accepted, and the conditions were assented to,

of the measures of Sir Archibald's administra- fession coming forward, will follow on in the both by the English Government and by the tion, a question, not proper to be introduced on same course, and thereby prove themselves Provincial Legislature. All this had been done, this occasion, as there might be some who differ worthy of the high compliment just bestowed on and the University of King's College rested on St. John, N. B., Nov. 20, 1840.

w'd,(N.E. E turn out, as has been proved more than once. There is too noble a spirit of patriotism and Wt loyalty prevailing throughout the country to fear any backwardness when duty calls ; but as there are several gentlemen present, who do farried.

Z

Re

Tth

D

On the 5th inst., by the Rev. R. Shepherd, Mr. Charles Yerxa, of the Fredericton Commercial Hotel, to Miss Mary Ann Hayden.

At Douglas, on Thursday the 26th November, by the Rev. W. M. Leggett, Mr. Thomas Pickard, of the Parish of Andover, to Miss Hetty Caroline, daughter of Mr. Benjamin Sloot.

Died.

On Friday Evening last, Thomas, infant son of Mr. Thomas H. Cripps, aged ten months.

Fredericton Library.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Monday next, the 14th day of December, at 2 o'clock in the a wish for the success of the cause of education : and he justified this remark by a reference to ernoon, all shares in the Fredericton Library, upon which the Subscriptions for the year ending in rember 1841, shall not then have been paid, will be To Scotland, the cause of education had ever sold by Public Auction, at the Library Room, to the upset price on each share will be 15s.

By order of the President.

R. GOWAN, Secretary. Sth December, 1840.

NOTICE.

FEW PEWS in the body and gallery of the Fre-A Few Pews in the body and gallery of the Fre-dericton Wesleyan Chapel having become fonieited, in consequence of the holders not paying their rents, said pews will be offered for sale at Public Auction on Saturday the 2d January, at 11 o'clock, A. M. on the premises.

By order of the Trustee THOMAS PICKARD, Chapel Steward. Fredericton, Dec. 8, 1840.

NEW GOODS.

THE Subscriber has, in addition to his present L Stock of Fancy and Domestic GOODS, just eceived a very neat and well selected assortment of Haberdashery, Hosiery, Merinos, Orleans Do. FLORA (a fashionable and entirely new article,)

RIBBONS, FLOWERS, and WREATHS ; Shammy Jackets, Worsted and Lambs' Wool Shirts and Drawers ; Flanuels, &c.; 300 pairs Country Socks.

On Consignment-

1 Case of Rug and Sampler WORSTED, of every shade and color.

10 Kegs GRAPES, fresh and green, in prime order. GEORGE WOODS. Fredericton, Dec. 7, 1840. 4w.

UST Published and for Sale, by the Gross, Dozen or otherwise, "'I he Merchant's and Farmer's Almanack, for 1841;-

Containing the Equation of Time, with a variety of other useful and amusing information.

W. L. AVERY. which will be sold low.

Robt. Slowman, P. Smalls, J. W. Smith, John Sulton, J. Sauer, J. W. Scribner, J. W. Smith, Moses Starrit, Mr. Stevens, J. Stone, B. D. Smith.

Wm. Turner, J. H. Tarler, Wm. Treadwell, Miss E. Tanfred, J. S. Taylor, John Thomas, Geo. A. Trueman, Wm. H. Taylor, Mrs. M. Thompson, Rev. W. Trorp, Mrs. M. A. Treadwell.

Mary Wilkins, Alex. Wilson, B. Wheeler, George Wulls, Thos. Welsh, John Watters, Elexandria Wilson, Jas. Williamson, Jos. Whittaker, Thos. White.

Thomas Young.

N. B. Persons asking for any of the above Letters, will please say they are advertised. W. B. PHAIR, Post Master.

BANK OF British North America.

THE Branch is now prepared to grant Bills at three days sight for any sum not less than Five Pounds Sterling, on the different Branches of the Provincial Bank of Ireland, viz : Dublin, Coleraine, Ballymena, Kilkenny, Cork, Omagh, Ballina, Limerick, Dungannon, Clonmel, Tralee, Bandon, Londonderry, Youghal, Ennis, Enniskillen, Sligo, Ballyshannon, Wexford, Monaghan, Strabane, Belfast, Banbridge, Dungarvon. Parsontown, Waterford, Mallow, Galway, Downpatrick, Moneymore, Armagh. Cavan, Cootehill, Athlone, Lurgan, Kilrush, Skibbereen. G. TAYLOR, Manager.

Fredericton, 8th Dec., 1840. [Sentinel.]

B.A.N. .A. W.A.N.

ROM the Subscriber a short time since, an indented colored Apprentice named an indented colored Apprentice named WILLIAM PHILLIPS. All persons are hereby cautioned against harbouring him or trusting him on my account, as I will not be answerable for the same.

SAMUEL SMITH. Maugerville, 8th Dec. 1840 .- 3w.

G. BUCHANAN & Co.

Tin Smiths and Sheet Iron Workers.

ESPECTFULLY announce that they have opened their Shop in King Street, lately occupied by Mr. W. Witham, near the Old Baptist Meeting House-and hope by at-On hand, a variety of ANNUALS for 1841. tention to business to merit a share of public, patronage.

1st December, 1841.-2w.