

We learn that Robert H. Liston, Esquire, the manager of the Bank of British North America in this city, intends removing to Canada, where he has obtained the management of one of the principal Branches there. From the highly creditable manner in which this gentleman has at all times conducted the arduous duties of his situation, we feel assured he will not be allowed to leave St. John, before he receives some tribute from the Merchants generally, expressing their real feelings of friendship towards him, and respect for those talents which he has so openly shown to possess on many occasions.—16.

Several of the passengers by the Britannia have arrived in this City, and speak in the highest terms of praise of the officers, ship, fare, &c.—16.

We announce with pleasure the arrival of the Rev. ROBERT WILLIAMSON, who has come to this country under a call from the congregation of St. Andrew's Church here, which has now been without the stated labors of a clergyman for upwards of two years. The very high character which Mr. Williamson acquired and sustained in his native land, alike as an accomplished gentleman and an exemplary and efficient minister of the Gospel, justifies the best expectation of future usefulness in the wide and needy field in which Providence has called him to labour; and we hope he will ultimately reap the reward of a faithful and diligent husbandman in the vineyard of his divine Master.—Pictou Observer, Sept. 6.

We regret to learn, that Mr. Arthur Farquhar died last night, at Phillipsburg, at nine o'clock.—Montreal Gazette, Sept. 5.

The trial of Captain Drew, R. N., before a Court Martial, which commenced on Monday last, on board H. M. Ship Vestal, was proceeding, and not likely to be finished for some days. The Court is composed as follows:—Captains Carter, Vestal President; Captains Parker, Winchester, and Milne, Crocodile—Commanders Johnston, Winchester, and Ramsay, Pilot, members; Thomas Woodman, Esq. Secretary to the Admiral Sir T. Harvey, acting Judge Advocate.—Montreal Herald, Sept. 5.
