The Commodore's principal object in coming to Canton, is said to be the expediting the despatch of reinforcements; His Excellency being of opinion that matters cannot be satisfactorily arranged without another visit to the in which, we trust Your Excellency will ever Gulf of Petchell.

Proclamations of the Chief Superintendent. In the first Proclamation, dated 6th March, 1841, Captain Elliott says:-

"PEOPLE OF CANTON, - Your city is spared because the Gracions Sovereign of Great Britain has commanded the High English Officer to remember that the good and peaceful people must be tenderly considered.

"But if the High Officers of the Celestial Court offer the least obstruction to the British forces in their present stations, then it will become necessary to answer force by force, and the city may suffer terrible injury.'

In another, dated 20th of March, he saysthe undersigned.

" It has further been publicly proclaimed to the people, under the Seals of the Commissioner and acting Governor of the Province, that the trade of the port of Canton is open, and that British and other Foreign merchants who may see fit to proceed there for the purpose of lawful commerce shall be duly protected.'

These are the most important facts in the Proclamations of Captain Elliott.

Accounts from Belgrade state, that the insurrection in Belgaria had been suppressed. It was believed in Constantinople that, although the dispute with Mehemet Ali had not been brought to a final settlement, no danger existed of peace being again disturbed. The tribute paid by the Pacha to the Porte had, it in six or eight weeks. We trust she will prove is said, been fixed at 90,000 purses, (£422,-000.) He had obtained a loan of $6,000,000 who continues to use his best endeavours to on a deposit of produce.

CEYLON. -Sir Colin Campbell had arrived at Ceylon on the 6th ult., and was immediately between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and proclaimed Governor of that Island. On the the neighbouring State of Maine .- Courier. 7th the Right Honorable Stewart M'Kenzie embarked in the Seafort steamer for Bombay PERSIA .- The intelligence via India is pacific. It is said that the British agent was about to return to Bushire, and amicable relations were to be renewed on the basis of a treaty by which the British will consent to evacuate Karrack, and the Schah cede the Fort Gorian to the Schah Kamran, and arrest his expedition to Herat. These stipulations are doubted, and it is thought that Karrack will not be given up.

[From the Woodstock Times, June 12.]

Sir Wm. M. G. Colebrook, Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, attended by Col. Hayne, Provincial Aid de Camp, arrived here per Thursday's stage, and drove to the residence of J. M. Connell, Esq. His Excellency was escorted on the Ferry (five miles below here.) by a detachment of the Carleton Dragoons, under the command of Capt. F. Morehouse, and several of the Magistrates, with a number of the Inhabitants of this vicinity. About a hundred persons formed the escort. On His Excellency's arrival at the Village, he was saluted with the usual number of Guns by the Artillery, under the command of Capt. A. K. S. Wetmore, and by the Amateur Band, playing "See, the conquering Hero comes." His Excellency seems to be between 50 and 60 years of age. His staid and sedate appearance. together with his plain and frank manner have produced an impression that will not soon be forgotten in the Village of Woodstock. The spirit evinced by all classes to receive His Excellency in a manner becoming the Representative of Her Most Gracious Mejesty, and in accordance with the sense that is entertained to his Country, we have no doubt will be fully [11 o'clock in the forenoon. appreciated and prove highly gratifying to Sir William. The Amateurs serenaded the Hotel during the hour of Mess, for which His Excellency returned them thanks in person, and expressed himself highly gratified with the attention which they had paid to him.

Yesterday morning His Excellency examined the lands that were anticipated would be appropriated for the erection of Barracks in this vicinity, and expressed himself, we understand, Mr. C. has left a widow, a family and a large conmuch pleased with the site. He then, with a number of gentlemen, proceeded to take a survey of Parks' Hill, near the Boundary Line. At 4 o'clock, P. M., he received the following Address, after the delivery of which and His Excellency's Reply-Messrs. C. Connell and J. Bedell, a Committee appointed to "obt in signatures to the Petition addressed to Her Majesty and the Imperial Parliament on the subject of Timber Duties," presented the same to His Excellency with a request that he would forward it to be laid at the foot of the Throne. His Excellency expressed the pleasure he should have in complying with their request. A Levee was held immediately after, when a number of gentlemen were introduced. He then visited the Court House, rode out to Jacksontown, and expressed himself much day the 3d day of August next, (if not prepleased with the appearance of the Country in general. His Excellency started in a canoe this morning at 6 o'clock, for Head Quarters.

The following is a copy of the Address:

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Bruns-
