

Shortly after the capture of Chusan, Admiral Elliot, in proceeding to the Pechu river, was met by a mandarin of the third rank of the Chinese Empire, though some accounts say by the Emperor himself, while others affirm that Admiral Elliot had arrived at Peking, and had an audience of the Emperor.

The Emperor has agreed to pay £3,000,000 for the expenses incurred by the British in making war; other authorities state £2,000,000 sterling, as indemnity for the opium seized, and £1,000,000 for the expenses of the war. The Emperor, either himself or through his officers, has expressed pacific intentions to the Admiral, and he disavows the actions of his Commissioner Lin. This latter indeed, has fallen into disgrace, and the Emperor offers to surrender him into the hands of the British, to be dealt with as they may think proper.

Chusan is not to be given up until the treaty be signed.

It is stated (and certainly there is nothing miraculous in the fact that his Celestial Majesty should be so influenced) that the Emperor is greatly annoyed at our occupation of Chusan, and his Minister hinted "that the Admiral's visit had prevented the march of fierce soldiers, to retake the island."

We are sorry to add that dysentery prevailed among our troops at Chusan, and that the climate was very unhealthy.

The news from India is also of the utmost importance. The Cabool and Afghanistan war has been terminated. By our advice, we learn that Dost Mohammed, after sustaining another defeat, found it necessary to throw himself upon the mercy of the British; and accompanied by a single follower, had placed himself under the protection of Sir W. M. Napier. From Scinde, also, we learn that the happiest results had followed the steps taken. The Belooches had sustained further defeats, with considerable loss on their part, and a comparatively trifling sacrifice on ours, and had been reduced to submission. They had recently plundered the country in every direction, but the greater portion of the pillage had fallen into our hands. Kheilat was on the 4th of November occupied without resistance by the troops under the command of General Nott.

All fears of hostilities from the Sikhs are also at an end; for we are informed that Kurruck Singh, king of Lahore, died on the 5th of November, and that during the funeral ceremony, his successor, Non-Nehal Singh, was killed by accident. Shere Singh has ascended the throne. With the two former, who were considered to be especially adverse to Great Britain, all dread of threatened hostility had vanished.

Our intelligence from Alexandria states, that the trip of the Great Liverpool, from Fal-mouth to that place, with the mails, had been made in fourteen days and one hour, for only twelve days and one hour of which time she was at sea.

The plague has appeared in Alexandria a month earlier than usual, and three deaths have been officially noticed. Ibrahim Pasha was still with his army at Damascus, to which he had returned in very ill health, and beset by the mountaineers, hoping (it was believed) to avail himself of the Napier convention to return to Egypt peacefully, and by sea. Mehmet Ali had again written to Admiral Stopford on the 21st ult. and proposed to send another message to expedite the return of Ibrahim and his army. Sir Charles Smith had arrived in the Hydra at Alexandria, and having had an interview with the Pasha, placed the Hydra at his service, to convey his despatch to Marmarica on the 22d ult. Sir Charles left Alexandria in the Great Liverpool. Serious sickness had prevailed at Acre. The storm that had visited the coast of Syria had produced an alarming scarcity at Beyrout and in the mountains, where the new Turkish Governor had recklessly stopped the supplies of grain arriving, and the mountaineers were again nearly driven into collision with the authorities by desperation.

No hope is entertained that the Porte will be able to govern Lebanon, now that the population is re-armed. Mehmet Ali was still raising batteries and exercising his troops incessantly, and had given notice to the National Guards of Alexandria that they were to consider themselves his regular soldiers. At the same time he was making preparations for the better cultivation of his private estates, and had appointed his son, Said Bey, and his grandson, Abbas Pasha, to be resident administrators in separate districts.

It has seldom fallen to our lot to publish such a mass of vitally important intelligence from so many quarters in which deeply valuable British interests have been at stake as that which we have thus referred to.

The results cannot fail to be in the highest degree satisfactory. The power of British arms has been recognized, or vindicated—the expense of long protracted and distant war has been saved, and an end has been put to that instability of affairs—the most dangerous to her commerce generally, however profitable in particular cases, which must have given to mere speculation a most unhealthy impetus. The effects of the Chinese intelligence have been already felt. The price of Tea at the time we wrote (three o'clock) has fallen 7d. per pound, whilst that of East India Cotton has risen. The course of the former change is obvious; the cause of the latter is, that large quantities of Cotton, which had the war continued, would have been shipped for this country, will, when the usual trade shall have been again opened at Canton, be sent to that port; and we are aware that in August last one native merchant (Jemsetjee) was in his possession, waiting the turn of events, upwards of 10,000 bales of this article. Matters have thus already begun to settle down to the level of a wholesome standard.

[From the Boston Courier.]

The arrangement does not seem to meet the approbation of the British East Indians. The Bombay Correspondents of the London papers speak of the professions of the Emperor as a mere pretence to get rid of the British force. The Bengal Hurkaru, which is said to speak the sentiment of the great majority of the Indian community, expresses its disappointment.

ment at the intelligence from China, and its disbelief in the promises of the Chinese authorities. It says:

The empire of China exists on a "mighty big lie"—they will now swear that they, that is the Chinese Government, have made us knock under, that is again to say that they have forced us to go to Canton to settle preliminaries, and we shall be placed just in the position ante bellum. We have thus lost our opportunity, we shall have our work to do again, and at least we shall be obliged to do that which we ought to have done at first, to strike at the heart.

Great sickness prevailed amongst the troops at Chusan; only 110 men of the Camerons, and 220 of the 49th being fit for duty, and this chiefly on account of the bad state of the provisions sent from Calcutta. The island itself, however, is stated to be unhealthy. Captain Anstruther, of the Madras Engineers was unfortunately captured by the Chinese while sketching within a mile of the town of Chusan, and was taken to Ningpo. The Kite and the Indian Oak are lost, and the Officers and crew of the former are in the hands of the Chinese at Ningpo.

Opium was in great demand on the coast, and had advanced to 900 and $1000 per chest.

NEWSPAPER ON A NOVEL PLAN.

A JOURNAL ON A PLAN ENTIRELY NEW, WILL BE SHORTLY PUBLISHED IN LIVERPOOL, IN CONNECTION WITH THE "NEW YORK ALBION."

TO BE CALLED "THE EUROPEAN."

ITS novelty will consist in being published on the days on which the steamers generally sail, so that it may always bring the very latest news. Another feature will consist in its combining every kind of intelligence, political, commercial, and general; and it will be ready for delivery to the subscribers immediately on the arrival of the vessels. Copies for the South and West will be forwarded by the first mail. There is no single publication in Great Britain which occupies this ground, and "THE EUROPEAN" will combine all the matter of interest to American readers, of half a dozen British Journals. A comprehensive summary of all the current political, parliamentary, and general news of the day, will be given on one page, while on another will be presented an accurate digest of the Money Market, Cotton Market, and Financial and Mercantile Affairs at large. The proposed publication will indeed supersede a number of Price Currents, Circulars, Shipping Lists, &c. and will put the merchant, the politician, and the man of leisure, in possession of all the European intelligence that can interest him, a few minutes after the vessel shall be in port. The subscription for this publication will be at the low price of $4 per annum, to the public generally, but those who do or shall take the Albion also, will be charged only $2 per annum each, in addition to the regular Albion subscription. Advantage will be taken of Mr. Cunard's Steamers whenever their priority of sailing promises a priority of arrival.

Subscribers to the Albion residing in the West Indies and South America can have The European forwarded to them direct from Liverpool, on making known their wishes at the Albion Office in New York.

It is stated in the above Prospectus that subscribers to the Albion will receive the European at Two dollars per annum. Of the merits of the Albion it is not necessary to speak, as it is already so well known throughout North America. Suffice it to say, that it continues to be published with its wonted regularity, and to enjoy its usual large share of public approbation. Its embellishments and adjuncts of Plates are of a superior order, and gives much value to the work. By the following article which has lately appeared in the Albion, it will be seen that three new Plates are announced, which, together with the paper itself, offer abundant attractions to the lovers of Literature and the Arts.

In our last we announced our intention of issuing to our subscribers two Plates in the course of the ensuing year, the subjects being the Duke of Wellington and Windsor Castle. It has occurred to us that it might be acceptable to our readers, if we were to select an American subject for one of our prints. This would seem to be but fair to our American subscribers, as most of our previous plates have consisted of English subjects; we have accordingly determined upon adopting this course. Consistently with this determination, and with our most careful endeavour to present that which shall be equally acceptable to all, we propose to offer in addition and in due course the portrait of WASHINGTON.

The events of the Revolution has now become matter of history, and are too far removed from the present time to allow of the continuance of hostile feelings on either side. The one great nation has become two—the independence of the offspring has been acknowledged by the parent, and they meet upon the great theatre of the world on terms of equality and friendship. Situated as they are, they have a mutual interest in promoting each other's prosperity;—by peace they gain every thing, by war they lose all. The interests of two nations upon the globe are so intimately blended, and it is impossible to injure one without inflicting a blow upon the other. In blood, in language, in laws and institutions, the two people are still one, and the only difference that the philosophic philanthropist can discover between them is, that the government of one is at London and the other at Washington.

Such being the relative position of the two countries it behoves every virtuous citizen of both to promote and inculcate to the best of his abilities, peace, harmony, and reciprocal good will.

In our humble labors, which have now continued upwards of eighteen years, it has ever been our aim to cherish and promote these sentiments, and we think that the offering we now design to present to our American friends, will be conducive to the same end. The plate will be produced as soon as practicable, and will be superior in execution to any that we have yet offered to our readers.—Albion, November 28, 1840.

Orders for one or both papers will be received at the Albion Office, or by any of its agents.

LECTURES ON GEOLOGY.

Under the Patronage of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, Sir JOHN HARVEY, K. C. B. & K. C. H.

By A. GESNER, F. G. S. PROVINCIAL GEOLOGIST.

TWELVE LECTURES on the interesting and important Science of GEOLOGY; to embrace a succinct account of the history, structure, and different formations of the earth, and many of the animal and vegetable remains found in it.

Each lecture will be demonstrated with large drawings, sections, and maps, and with a great variety of foreign and Provincial specimens of minerals and fossils.

The Geology of New Brunswick will be duly attended to; its different classes of rocks and minerals will be offered for inspection, so far as they have been discovered. A very large and beautiful Geological Map of New Brunswick, with the fossils discovered in this Province, will also be exhibited; the whole being intended to illustrate a system of Geology adapted to this part of North America.

Price of Family Tickets for the whole Course, 20s.; Single Ticket for ditto, 10s.; Ticket for Single Lecture, 2s. 6d.

The Lectures will be delivered in Messrs. BECKWITH'S Building, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, in each week, at Eight o'clock in the evening, to commence on Friday the 29th January, 1841.

Tickets to be had at Mr. Beverly's and Mr. Beck's Book Stores.

FOR SALE.

FIVE Acres of LAND will be sold in Lots to suit purchasers, the same being in two tracts, including four small Islands, situate on the New Canaan River, about four miles above the head of the Washademoac Bay, Queen's County.

The first tract including three Islands, contains a valuable Mill Site, the stream being sufficient to carry any number of Saws. It is also navigable for large Wood Boats up the stream to said land; making it one of the most eligible situations for a Mill in that section of the country, there also being almost an inexhaustible quantity of Spruce and Norway Pine Timber, suitable for Logs, on the stream.

Any persons wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity of purchasing any part of said land, either for Mill or Agricultural purposes, will please apply to

GEORGE H. HART.
Fredericton, January, 27, 1841.

N. B. All persons are hereby warned not to trespass on said tracts of land, as in the event of trespass being committed, the subscriber is instructed to prosecute all persons concerned in such trespass. All persons are also forbid trespassing on a tract of land containing 1840 acres, situate at the head of the New Canaan River.

The subscriber will give permits to cut Timber or Lumber off the last mentioned tract.

GEORGE H. HART,
Agent for the Proprietors.

THE HALIFAX MORNING POST, And Parliamentary Reporter.

BY J. H. CROSSKILL, No. 13, HOLLIS STREET, HALIFAX, N. S.

IT is now four months since the publication of this paper was commenced, and during that short period, it has become established in character and circulation in Nova Scotia and in many portions of New Brunswick.

It transmits regularly, by every mail, to all places in both Provinces, the latest and most important intelligence on all subjects interesting to the Colonies or the Empire at large. Four hours after the arrival of the Cunard Steamers from England, there is issued from this office an extraordinary sheet, containing the news, which is thus sent by the same conveyance that carries the English Mail, to the towns at a distance from the Capital,—to New Brunswick, to Prince Edward Island, and to the United States of America: so that the Subscribers to this paper receive the English news free of extra charge, earlier than it can be obtained through any of the ordinary channels.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—Once every week the Morning Post publishes a letter, replete with wit and information, from a talented correspondent in St. John—whose graphic sketches of society, and humorous descriptions, are universally admired, while they are increasing the esteem in which the Morning Post is held in New Brunswick, and extending its circulation among her inhabitants.

To furnish a correct Report of the sayings and doings of the Parliament of Nova Scotia, is one of the chief objects of this paper.

Immediately after the close of the Session, the proprietor of the Morning Post will commence the publication of a series of ORIGINAL TALES, POEMS, ESSAYS, and SKETCHES,—his desire being to encourage native genius, and to extend and beautify the walks of colonial literature. He trusts that this new and novel feature in the journal under his control, will secure for it as extensive and permanent a circulation, as it is humbly conceived, a paper on which so much labour is expended, is justly entitled to.

The Morning Post is mailed to Country Subscribers at the low price of Fifteen Shillings per annum, in advance; or it will be sent to any address, for one year and a half, on the receipt of a pound note in advance,—free of Postage.

The Sam Slick papers, third series, are now being republished in the Morning Post.
