

Miss Atherton, a lady of property, has contributed £10,000 towards the funds of the Manchester and Eccles Church Building Society.

Captain Vivian (11th Hussars) son of Sir Hussey Vivian, was married on Wednesday morning at Hove Church, to Miss Woodgate, a young lady of great fortune, who has long been residing with her aunt (Mrs. Bouham) in Brunswick terrace.

A giantess, named Moir, who has been recently exhibiting herself at Glasgow, has been taken up on a charge of murdering her husband, whom she killed by a blow on the head with a bed post in a quarrel.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE.—The marriage of the Right Hon. Francis Thornhill Baring, M. P., Chancellor of the Exchequer, with the Lady Arabella Howard, second daughter of the Earl of Eppingham, was solemnized on Wednesday morning, at St. George's Church.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Robert Duncan, ship builder, which took place at his house on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Duncan was well known in Greenock as an active and skilful tradesman, of quiet, unobtrusive manners, and irreproachable character. His fame as a builder of steamers must be very widely extended, as vessels of his construction are to be found in almost every part where steam navigation is carried on to any extent. The Britannia, the first of the line of Halifax steamers, was built by him, as was also the Clyde, the first of the steam frigates intended to carry the mails to the West India line, and an account of the launching of which we published a little more than a fortnight ago. Although, comparatively speaking, but a young man, Mr. Duncan had attained a high reputation even among the builders of the Clyde, who are fairly entitled to vie with those of any other part of the world.—Greenock Advertiser.
