THE NEW WORLD,
Edited by Park Benjamin.

A NEW QUARTO VOLUME ENLARGED.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE NEW WORLD,
I desire to bring their Journal immediately before the People of British America. On the first week in July commenced a new volume, printed in elegant quarto size, on new and clear type. The paper is of the same size and appearance as the London Britannia, which is the handsomest sheet issued from the English Press. There are sixteen pages, and four columns on each page, of printed matter. There is often a page of new and popular Music, selected and revised by an eminent English Professor. There are often beautiful wood engravings introduced as illustrations of the text.

The articles, which appear in the New World, are chosen from the newest and most popular publications in Great Britain. No expense is spared to obtain these by the steamers at the earliest possible moment. Indeed the proof-sheets are, in many instances, purchased by our agent in London, who is vigilant and industrious in his duty, several weeks previous to their regular publication, and transmitted to us. The numbers of "Charles O'Malley," are thus obtained from the publishers of the Dublin University Magazine. Beside "Chas. O'Malley," always published by us in advance of any other paper in America, "Ten Thousand A-Year," and "Barnaby Rudge," are presented with unflinching punctuality.

In addition to the most popular continued stories of the day, we re-publish the very best portions of the periodical literature of England, Scotland and Ireland. We also frequently receive and publish new tales, &c., which appear in book-form in London, and which command a high copy-right from the best publishers. These are obtained, without regard to expense, the very moment they escape from the press, and sent to the New World.

Our Journal is entirely impartial with regard to American politics, and but a very small space is devoted to them. We have an excellent correspondent resident in London, by whom we are furnished with the fullest British intelligence, proceedings in Parliament, &c. &c. We will venture to assert that the New World will be found exceedingly interesting in all respects to Canadians.

The New World is the cheapest as well as the largest paper printed in this Country. For $3, transmitted to us in good Canada money in a letter, Postage paid to New York, the paper will be sent for one year; for $5, so transmitted, it will be sent for two years. To all persons, thus subscribing for one or two years, all the back numbers of "Charles O'Malley"—being the first volume and the commencement of the second—will be sent GRATUITOUSLY.

The New World is put up in strong wrappers, and carefully mailed on Friday of each week—the day of publication being Saturday. It is as sure to reach any place of destination in Canada as the Albion or other papers which have a large circulation. Address,
J. WINCHESTER, Publisher,
30 Ann Street, New York.

NOTICE.

THE following Property in the Parish of Douglas, in the County of York, or so much thereof as will satisfy the assessments against each of the Person's Property for 1841, will be sold at the Market House in Fredericton, on Friday the 17th day of September next, at 12 o'clock, noon.

George Bridges—so much of Lots Nos. 19 and 20, as will pay the sum of four shillings and nine pence, with costs—Hesketh P. Fleetwood—so much of Lot No. 48, as will pay the sum of four shillings and nine pence, with costs—of which all persons concerned will take notice.

PROSPECTUS
Of a Newspaper about to be established in Halifax, TO BE CALLED
"THE REGISTER."

IN announcing to the Public our intention to establish a liberal Press in this City, we feel that some explanation of the principles by which we are to be guided is necessary. We are fully aware of the difficulties with which the Editor of a Public Journal has to contend; and while we do not arrogate to ourselves any extraordinary talent, we do humbly submit that, from the experience we have had for a number of years in a Country where the Newspaper Press has attained the highest degree of perfection, we are not altogether incompetent to the discharge of the important duties in question.

The politics of the Paper will be decidedly liberal. We shall give a steady but conditional support to the government of the illustrious nobleman charged with the administration of affairs in this Province, because we are convinced that it is the determination of His Excellency to deal strict and impartial justice to all classes of Her Most Gracious Majesty's subjects in this section of her dominions.

In the religious department of the Paper we will most cautiously abstain from inserting any matter calculated to give the slightest offence to the feelings of our dissenting brethren, but we shall temperately correct any misrepresentations that may be made of the doctrines of the Catholic Church.

Our Paper, in this particular, will be of a defensive and not of an aggressive character. Its columns will always contain every information interesting to the Catholics of North America at large. We will present to our readers all events of moment that take place in the Catholic world, together with selections from the works of learned and distinguished Catholic Bishops and Priests, and also a vast quantity of original matter from persons of first rate abilities and profound erudition.

One of the principal objects which the promoters of this Paper have in view is the communication of Irish intelligence, so peculiarly interesting to Irishmen at this side of the Atlantic, and which the Provincial Papers have not and could not have given to the extent desired, as not having sufficient available space for that purpose, in consequence of the great press of local matter. All questions involving the interests of these Colonies and the British Empire in general shall receive at our hands that attention which is commensurate with their merits; while the welfare and national prosperity of Ireland shall be with us a matter of unceasing solicitude, and command our attention in an especial degree.

The question of education will find in us warm and strenuous advocates; our columns will ever be open to the communications of those who take an interest in the subject; and every effort will be made by us, in conjunction with others, to place upon a sure and lasting foundation, a system of instruction, calculated to dignify and elevate the minds of the rising generation.

There is another subject upon which we would beg to offer one or two remarks: we mean the all-important cause of temperance. It shall have our hearty and unqualified advocacy. We will deem it a sacred duty to exert our humble talents in directing public attention to its regenerating influence,—in proclaiming the invaluable blessings which society here, and in every part of the world, will derive from its practice. Great and wonderful indeed are the alterations which it has already made in those who have enlisted under its honorable banner. Great are the victories which it has achieved for morality and religion. It has created a new respect for the constituted authorities of the land, while it has brought peace and contentment, happiness and domestic felicity to the fire-sides of its votaries. We have reason to be truly thankful for the great reformation effected by the agency of temperance in this City, the consoling effects of which were so happily proved by the procession of the 24th, a day that will ever be remembered in Halifax, as having been one consecrated to the noblest of objects: the second regeneration of man.

We will devote a considerable portion of our space to the reports of the debates in the House of Assembly, to the reviews of all the leading periodicals of the day, and to the promotion of science, literature, and the fine arts; the latest news up to the time of going to press will be given; in fine, every exertion will be made to render the Register worthy the enlightened and extensive patronage to which it aspires; and to carry out to their fullest extent, the objects of its establishment.

In conclusion, we have only to add, that we will endeavour to cultivate a kindly feeling with all our contemporaries. Our political opinions will be expressed in a manly, straight-forward manner; but always in a courteous and gentlemanly strain towards those who may differ from us. All personalities and ribald vulgarities will be excluded from our columns; we will not deviate to the right or to the left, but pursuing the "even tenor of our way," our aim shall be to earn for the Paper in question, a title to be ranked amongst the most respectable and distinguished of the Provincial Newspaper Press.

NOTICE.

DR. M. F. HALEY,

Surgeon Dentist,

WILL be in Fredericton on the 1st of August next, and remain for a few days only, during which time he will perform all necessary operations on the TEETH, for their preservation and beauty; and as he had every advantage of becoming perfectly acquainted with the various branches of his profession, combined with a number of years' successful practice, he hopes to obtain the entire confidence of those who may need his services. As individuals are sometimes imposed upon by Dentists, who are entirely unworthy of the confidence of the public, Dr. H. has with him some specimens of his work, as well as letters from some of the first Dentists and Physicians in Boston and vicinity, and would invite any individual to call on him and he will endeavor to give them satisfaction for their trouble, even if they do not wish any operation performed. That, however, is the best way for individuals to satisfy themselves in respect to his skill in filling and setting Teeth, and in all other branches of his profession.

Dr. H. fills Teeth with gold, in such manner as to entirely stop the progress of the decay, and such Teeth as are too far decayed to fill with gold he fills with a mineral paste. This is made of the precious metal and is put in the Tooth perfectly soft and in a short time becomes perfectly hard. With this paste, Teeth that are pretty much broken away may be built up so as to render them serviceable for many years. Dr. H. will also set the mineral Teeth on gold or the root, to match the natural Teeth so perfectly that they cannot be detected. For extracting Teeth he uses the Forceps, which do not cause half the pain that the Key does. There will be no pain attending any operation except extracting.

NOTICE.

Church Society.

PROSPECTUS

"The New Brunswicker."

ALTHOUGH the Publisher of the New Brunswicker in sending his Paper into the world without any previous notification, has not conformed to the usual practice of newspaper Publishers, he considers it unnecessary to be prolix in his address to the Public, as its future pages will speak for themselves. It may be expected, however, that some assurance should be given, that will enable the reader to form an opinion of the Publication; and it will be necessary briefly to state, that the New Brunswicker is intended to contain a synopsis of events that may transpire in the Colonies, and particularly in New Brunswick.—On the arrival of the Atlantic steamers, an interesting summary of the news from the United Kingdom, and of the debates in Parliament will be given, without expounding the opinions of either of the great political parties whose successes or reverses may be recorded.

But while no pains will be spared to obtain the latest intelligence of a political and commercial nature, Literary matters shall not be overlooked.—The torch of Literature," said an elegant writer, illumines the path of wisdom;" and it may be unnecessary to add, that the Literary department of this Paper has been placed in the hands of a person fully competent to arrange a tasteful nonpareil, plucked from the flowers that adorn the walks of Literature. Every work issued from the press, that claims public support, will be fairly reviewed, and its merits or defects impartially pointed out.

Free discussion shall ever be promoted, as a valuable medium of eliciting truth; but all articles of an acrimonious or vindictive character, will be expelled from the columns of The New Brunswicker.

ROOMS TO LET.

THE Subscriber offers to let the upper part of his HOUSE in King Street, next door to Mr. J. L. IN Presenting the "Second Series" of this Work to the Christian Public, the publisher feels it to be his duty gratefully to acknowledge that general approbation and success which distinguished the "First Series," by which seven large editions were sold in as many months! As the present volume contains fewer "fancy sketches," and is almost wholly confined to "Landscape Illustrations" of the Bible—matter-of-fact views of places, as they exist at the present day; and is entirely free from every thing illiberal and sectarian in sentiment, he trusts it will be deemed worthy of a portion of that patronage so amply bestowed on its predecessor.
