[PUBLISHED BY COMMAND.]

Kent Emigrant Society's Office,

Richibucto, Oct. 27, 1841.

SIR,—I have the honor to enclose the proceedings of a General Meeting of the inhabitants of this County, convoked by the High Sheriff on the 14th instant, for the purpose of forming an Emigrant Society; and I am instructed by the Honorable President to acquaint you for the information of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, that the Society, as then organized, is now in full operation. An active correspondence is commenced with many persons whose pursuits are likely to afford useful information of what Emigrants may require, as well as with others who may give such persons direction where they may obtain that advice and assistance of which they may stand in need. From the well-known zeal of the President and the other Officers of the institution for the settlement of the Country, I am warranted in expressing the most sanguine hopes of its being the instrument of effecting much good to a Country where labor is the principal desideratum to develop and bring into active operation the capabilities with which it is so richly endowed by nature.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obed't. and very humble serv't.

WM. J. LAYTON, Secretary.
Alfred Reade, Esq. Private Secretary, &c. &c. &c.

Emigrant Society's Office,
Richibucto, Oct. 14, 1841.

SIR,—Enclosed are the Rules of the Kent Emigrant Society, which I have in direction from the President and Directors to communicate to you, with a request that you will perform your duties as an Assistant on all occasions which may offer.

You will please to furnish me with a list of all persons who may apply to you for advice and direction, with the particular circumstances of their application, and I shall occasionally have to request your advice and information in respect of such persons in your neighbourhood, who may have the power to afford employment, such as Emigrants of particular classes or trades may desire to obtain.

I am, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
WM. J. LAYTON, Secretary.
A.—B.—Esq. Assistant, &c., Emigrant Society.

KENT EMIGRANT SOCIETY.

On Tuesday the 12th October, a Meeting was held in the Court House, for the purpose of forming an Emigrant Society, Le Baron Drury, Esquire, in the Chair—Mr. Layton was desired to act as Secretary.

Resolved, That an Emigrant Society be formed, consisting of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Board of Directors, with Assistants in different districts.

The following persons were then elected as Office Bearers:—

The Hon. J. W. Weldon, President,	George Pagan, and	Vice-
Le Baron Drury, Esq's.	Wm. J. Layton, Esquire, Secretary,	Presidents,
David Wark, Esquire, Treasurer,	John Wheten, William M'Leod, John Jar-
John Wheten, William M'Leod, John Jar-	dine, Wm. Chandler, John P. Ford, and Jas.
Long Esquires; The Rev. James Hannay,	Messrs. D. Gifford, L. Des Brisay, and Wm.
Caie—Directors.

Messrs. Thomas Johnson, John Clark, John Thornt, George Holder, Isaac Sowerby, David Keswick, Wm. Beck, John Carruthers, John Stephenson, John Keswick, and Albert B. Smith, Esquire—Assistants.

Resolved, That a subscription of two shillings and six pence shall constitute a Member.

Resolved, That the objects of this Society be to afford useful and industrious Emigrants employment, information and assistance, in the means of obtaining a livelihood, in order to attach them to the soil, and to make their settlement a source of honest independence to themselves, and of advantage to the Country. In the attainment of this important end, prompt information should be afforded of such employment or waste land as the parties may desire, or as may be under the circumstances advisable; and generally to render every assistance to Emigrants, whether poor or in good circumstances, as may smooth the difficulties incidental to men who come to us as strangers, in utter ignorance of the Country and its climate, of the mode of living, of cultivating the soil, and in all respects of procuring a sufficient subsistence in the Country.

Resolved, That as the organ of the President and Directors, the Secretary should enter into correspondence with the different Assistants, in order to obtain information useful to persons who are likely to require assistance, and to obtain the means of furnishing generally to Emigrants, such information as may be a means of attaching them as permanent settlers, either as farm-labourers, house servants, tradesmen, or as farmers.

Resolved, That in furtherance of the objects of this Society, and to enable Emigrants to procure immediately all necessary and desirable information in the various districts of the County, the Assistants will be the proper coadjutors of the Board of Directors; and the Secretary, in order to be the general nucleus for receiving and disseminating information, should be by himself, or by competent Assistants, in regular attendance at the office of the Society.

Resolved, That the Secretary do enter into communication with any one likely to give information to Emigrants of the objects of this Society, and of his readiness to furnish any assistance and advice to all applicants; and also, that he keep a book, in which all such persons, and of the circumstances under which they may apply, shall be recorded for the use of this Society.

Resolved, That the Rules of the York Emigrant Society, of the 2d June, and those of the Society in Saint John, of the 29th September, be used generally to direct the officers of this Society in the course of their management.

Resolved, That the annual Meeting of this Society be on the day on which the Agricultural Society's Cattle Show be appointed to be held, in order to subserve the convenience of Members who naturally entertain a similarity of views; at which time shall be appointed the Office Bearers, Rules and Regulations established or altered, and the general business incidental to a Society transacted.

LE BARON DRURY, Chairman.
