ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER ACADIA.
The Acadia left Liverpool at half-past twelve o'clock, (noon,) on the 20th of July, and made the passage across the Atlantic in an hour and a half less than eleven days; having arrived at the Cunard Wharf, Halifax, at eleven o'clock, A. M., on the 31st of July.

The Elections throughout the Kingdom appear to have terminated, generally, in favor of the Conservatives. The numbers as given in the Morning Chronicle—a liberal paper—are as follow, viz:—

	Reformers.	Tories.
English Boroughs	176	166
Counties	22	137
Ireland	53	33
Scotland	30	22

Majorities of Tories 82

The Liverpool Times gives a somewhat different statement, as follows:—“The elections are now completed, with the exception of two Irish counties, viz: Kerry and Wexford. The numbers (exclusive of these two counties) are as follows:—

	Reformers.	Tories.
English Boroughs	175	166
Counties	21	137
Ireland	57	43
Scotland	31	22

Total 236 368

As no doubt is entertained of the return of the four reform Candidates at Wexford and Kerry, the number of Reformers may be fairly stated at 290, which, in a House of 658, leaves the Tories a majority of 78.”

Parliament, it is understood, will meet on the 19th August.

Mr. O'Connell lost his seat for the City of Dublin, but was returned for Meath.

The steamer Colombia made her last passage to Liverpool in 10 days.

The quarter ended 5th July, 1841, as compared with the quarter ended 5th July, 1840, exhibits a decrease of £3,661. But, taking the extraordinary revenue, there is an increase of £148,689. In the customs there is a decrease of £289,348, in the Stamps a decrease of £48,830; while in the Excise, there is an increase of £88,360, in the Taxes £382,888, and in the Post-office £19,000.

The year ended the 5th July, 1841, as compared with the year ended 5th July, 1840, exhibited a decrease of £524,640; but taking the ordinary revenue, only a decrease of £287,487.

Customs £856,991, in the Post-office £545,000; while the increase in the Excise is £431,020, in the Stamps £31,664, and in the Taxes £649,471.

The decrease in the Post-office for the year is easily accounted for, the reduction having commenced with the third quarter of the year ended 5th July, 1840.

The papers report that the Duchess of Kent has intimated her intention of returning to this country before the 17th of next month, which is the anniversary of her birth-day.

Her Majesty is about to pay a series of visits to several noble families, whose residences are within a moderate distance from town. Her Majesty will first visit Pansanger, the seat of the Earl and Countess Cowper; afterwards, Morehall, the noble mansion of the Marquis of Westminster, in the same county; and subsequently Woburn, the princely residence of the Duke and Duchess of Bedford.

THE PRINCESS ROYAL.—The Queen of the Belgians has brought to this country a series of beautiful robes (commonly called baby linen) principally composed of Valenciennes and Brussels laces, and a great portion of them ornamented with elaborate embroidery, the work of her own hands, as a present to Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

It may not be uninteresting to mention that Monday was the birth-day of the Honorable Mrs. Fox, relict of the late illustrious statesman. The lady has reached her ninety-sixth year, and is in very good health, frequently entertaining select parties of her friends at her hospitable table at St. Ann's Hill.—Times, July 13.

THE WEST INDIA MAIL STEAMERS.—Another steamer, the Dee, has now been added to the number of these magnificent ships, of which there are now five, registering no less than 9,500 tons. Report says very highly of their capability and elegance of construction. The entire cost of these five vessels will have been at least £400,000.

MARRIAGE OF MISS PEEL.—The marriage of Viscount Villiers, eldest son of the Earl of Jersey, with the daughter of Sir Robert Peel, was solemnized on Wednesday, at St. George's, Hanover-square. The happy pair subsequently set off to Middleton Park, one of the seats of the Earl of Jersey, where they intend passing the honeymoon.

The Earl of Cardigan was balloted for as a member of the Senior United Service Club on Tuesday the 6th July. There were 28 white and 166 black balls: in all 194 balloted. The noble earl was therefore rejected; and the consequence of the rejection is that he cannot be again proposed as a member for ten years. It so happened that the other fourteen candidates, and among them, the Major of the Eleventh Hussars, were all admitted.—Morning Chronicle. [A correspondent of the Chronicle corrects these figures: the white balls were 168, the black only 28. The effect is the same, so far as the mere fact of Lord Cardigan's rejection goes.]

The Dowager Countess of Scarborough was nearly shot on Tuesday afternoon, while sitting in her back drawing room in Portman Square. A young gentleman had been amusing himself by shooting birds with bullets the size of peas, from an air-pistol; and one of these passed through the drawing room window.

Mr. T. P. Courtenay, brother to the Earl of Devon, died suddenly at Torquay in Devonshire, on Thursday last. He was bathing near the shore on that day, and was either drowned in the sea upon being seized by cramp, or, as another account has it, died of apoplexy on the shore, whether he directly rushed on feeling premonitory symptoms. Mr. Courtenay was formerly Vice-President of the Board of Trade and Commissioner of the Board of Control; and for several years sat in the Commons for Totnes. He enjoyed a pension of £1,000 a year. He was in his fifty ninth year; and has left a wife and thirteen children.

The President and Council of the Royal Academy have presented an address of condolence to the brother and sister of Sir David Wilkie, on their brother's death. A similar address from the profession at large was transmitted to them through the Royal Academy, at the same time.

HORRID AFFAIR.—By information received from Sussex Vale, we are put in possession of the facts of a case, the parallel of which, we believe, has never transpired in that hitherto peaceful part of the country. It appears that a dispute had for some time existed between Thomas Harrison and Isaac Cleveland, about the privilege of a spring on Cleveland's property, hitherto enjoyed by Harrison, but of which he had no legal title. On Tuesday last, as Cleveland was in the act of putting up the line-fence which excluded Harrison from the spring, he was assailed by the latter, and the fence thrown down as fast as he put it up. Cleveland threatened, and at length threw a stone at the aggressing party, which, it is asserted, did not touch him; upon which Harrison went immediately to his house, and brought down his gun, and seating himself, when Cleveland was to work, endeavored to provoke a quarrel; being foiled in that, he seized the rail which Cleveland was in the act of putting on the fence, and a tussel ensued, in which he was also foiled; he then seized his gun, and standing at the distance of about five yards, discharged the contents in Cleveland's leg, a little below the knee, literally shattering the limb to atoms. As the scene of this transaction occurred a considerable distance from Cleveland's house, he had to lie where he fell, until Harrison's servant yoked up the ox team and carried him home. Dr. Vail was in attendance as soon as possible, and the only alternative—amputation—was immediately resorted to. Both parties are of old standing and respectable connections, and this event has thrown a damp over the feelings of the whole community.—The act of Harrison, we are sorry to learn, is considered by every one the effects of deep-rooted and deliberate malice.—Mor. News.

Harrison was arrested, but succeeded in effecting his escape from two Constables who were conveying him to jail. A hue and cry has been issued by the Sheriff for his apprehension, and it is expected that he will soon be taken.

In addition to the death of that fine officer and excellent man, Admiral Harvey, at Bermuda, we have the melancholy duty to announce the loss of Sir Evan John Murray McGregor, Governor of Barbadoes, which event took place on the morning of the 14th June. His Excellency was sincerely and justly beloved, and his death is lamented by all parties throughout the land.

The Hon. John Breathwaite was sworn in as temporary administrator of the Government until the proper successor should arrive.—N. Y. Albion.

PROSPECTUS

Of a Newspaper about to be established in Halifax, TO BE CALLED

“THE REGISTER.”

IN announcing to the Public our intention to establish a liberal Press in this City, we feel that some explanation of the principles by which we are to be guided is necessary. We are fully aware of the difficulties with which the Editor of a Public Journal has to contend; and while we do not arrogate to ourselves any extraordinary talent, we do humbly submit that, from the experience we have had for a number of years in a Country where the Newspaper Press has attained the highest degree of perfection, we are not altogether incompetent to the discharge of the important duties in question.

The politics of the Paper will be decidedly liberal. We shall give a steady but conditional support to the government of the illustrious nobleman charged with the administration of affairs in this Province, because we are convinced that it is the determination of His Excellency to deal strict and impartial justice to all classes of Her Most Gracious Majesty's subjects in this section of her dominions.

In the religious department of the Paper we will most cautiously abstain from inserting any matter calculated to give the slightest offence to the feelings of our dissenting brethren, but we shall temperately correct any misrepresentations that may be made of the doctrines of the Catholic Church.

Our Paper, in this particular, will be of a defensive and not of an aggressive character. Its columns will always contain every information interesting to the Catholics of North America at large. We will present to our readers all events of moment that take place in the Catholic world, together with selections from the works of learned and distinguished Catholic Bishops and Priests, and also a vast quantity of original matter from persons of first rate abilities and profound erudition.

One of the principal objects which the promoters of this Paper have in view is the communication of Irish intelligence, so peculiarly interesting to Irishmen at this side of the Atlantic, and which the Provincial Papers have not and could not have given to the extent desired, as not having sufficient available space for that purpose, in consequence of the great press of local matter. All questions involving the interests of these Colonies and the British Empire in general shall receive at our hands that attention which is commensurate with their merits; while the welfare and national prosperity of Ireland shall be with us a matter of unceasing solicitude, and command our attention in an especial degree.

The question of education will find in us warm and strenuous advocates; our columns will ever be open to the communications of those who take an interest in the subject; and every effort will be made by us, in conjunction with others, to place upon a sure and lasting foundation, a system of instruction, calculated to dignify and elevate the minds of the rising generation.

There is another subject upon which we would beg to offer one or two remarks: we mean the all-important cause of temperance. It shall have our hearty and unqualified advocacy.—We will deem it a sacred duty to exert our humble talents in directing public attention to its regenerating influence,—in proclaiming the invaluable blessings which society here, and in every part of the world, will derive from its practice. Great and wonderful indeed are the talerations which it has already made in those who have enlisted under its honorable banner. Great are the victories which it has achieved for morality and religion. It has created a new respect for the constituted authorities of the land, while it has brought peace and contentment, happiness and domestic felicity to the fire-sides of its votaries. We have reason to be truly thankful for the great reformation effected by the agency of temperance in this City, the consoling effects of which were so happily proved by the procession of the 24th, a day that will ever be remembered in Halifax, as having been one consecrated to the noblest of objects: the second regeneration of man.

We will devote a considerable portion of our space to the reports of the debates in the House of Assembly, to the reviews of all the leading periodicals of the day, and to the promotion of science, literature, and the fine arts; the latest news up to the time of going to press will be given; in fine, every exertion will be made to render the Register worthy the enlightened and extensive patronage to which it aspires; and to carry out to their fullest extent, the objects of its establishment.

In conclusion, we have only to add, that we will endeavour to cultivate a kindly feeling with all our contemporaries. Our political opinions will be expressed in a manly, straight-forward manner; but always in a courteous and gentlemanly strain towards those who may differ from us. All personalities and ribald vulgarities will be excluded from our columns; we will not deviate to the right or to the left, but pursuing the “even tenor of our way,” our aim shall be to earn for the Paper in question, a title to be ranked amongst the most respectable and distinguished of the Provincial Newspaper Press.

J. R. FITZGERALD, EDITOR.
June 10, 1841.

THE NEW WORLD,

Edited by Park Benjamin.

A NEW QUARTO VOLUME ENLARGED.

THE Proprietors of the NEW WORLD, desire to bring their Journal immediately before the People of British America. On the first week in July commenced a new volume, printed in elegant Quarto size, on new and clear type. The paper is of the same size and appearance as the London Britannia, which is the handsomest sheet issued from the English Press. There are sixteen pages, and four columns on each page, of printed matter. There is often a page of new and popular Music, selected and revised by an eminent English Professor. There are often beautiful wood engravings introduced as illustrations of the text.

The articles, which appear in the New World, are chosen from the newest and most popular publications in Great Britain. No expense is spared to obtain these by the steamers at the earliest possible moment. Indeed the proof-sheets are, in many instances, purchased by our agent in London, who is vigilant and industrious in his duty, several weeks previous to their regular publication, and transmitted to us. The numbers of “Charles O'Malley,” are thus obtained from the publishers of the Dublin University Magazine. Beside “Chas. O'Malley,” always published by us in advance of any other paper in America, “Ten Thousand A-Year,” and “Barnaby Rudge,” are presented with unflinching punctuality.

In addition to the most popular continued stories of the day, we re-publish the very best portions of the periodical literature of England, Scotland and Ireland. We also frequently receive and publish new tales, &c., which appear in book-form in London, and which command a high copy-right from the best publishers. These are obtained, without regard to expense, the very moment they escape from the press, and sent to the New World.

Our Journal is entirely impartial with regard to American politics, and but a very small space is devoted to them. We have an excellent correspondent resident in London, by whom we are furnished with the fullest British intelligence, proceedings in Parliament, &c. &c. We will venture to assert that the New World will be found exceedingly interesting in all respects to Canadians.

The New World is the cheapest as well as the largest paper printed in this Country. For $3, transmitted to us in good Canada money in a letter, Postage paid to New York, the paper will be sent for one year; for $5, so transmitted, it will be sent for two years. To all persons, thus subscribing for one or two years, all the back numbers of Charles O'Malley—being the first volume and the commencement of the second—will be sent GRATUITOUSLY.

The New World is put up in strong wrappers, and carefully mailed on Friday of each week—the day of publication being Saturday. It is as sure to reach any place of destination in Canada as the Albion or other papers which have a large circulation. Address,

J. WINCHESTER, Publisher,
30 Ann Street, New York.
