

took possession again of the foreign factories, and were just in time to save the greater part of them from destruction, driving from thence a mob of soldiers and thieves that had begun carrying away whatever they could. They were too late, however, to save the Greek, Dutch, and British Hongs—these have been completely sacked; everything, even to the window-frames, has been carried away, and a large quantity of valuable merchandise, chiefly woollens, which were stored in the Company's Godowns, have become a prey to the mob.

On the 27th, the Camerounians were still in possession of the factories, and the other troops, consisting of the 18th Royal Irish, H. M. 49th, the Madras 37th N. I., altogether 1700 men, and 500 marines, had after some sharp fighting taken possession of the heights to the north of Canton and driven all the Tartar troops into the city, which was being bombarded from the ships with round shot, shells and rockets. On the 26th a general attack, it is said, was contemplated, and parties arrived yesterday from Whampoa, which they left late on that day, report having heard a heavy cannonade during the greatest part of the day.

It is, therefore, very probable, that whilst we are writing, Canton is in possession of the English.

We hear that on the 25th, early in the morning, Hegua and the Kwangchowtoo had an interview with one of the Naval Commanders, offering to negotiate for the safety of the city; that they offered five millions of dollars, to be paid within three months, and all damage done to or suffered by the English during the attack on the city to be made good; that they further offer to withdraw all troops from Canton, and ask forty days to effect it in.—These offers, if made, have, it appears, been refused; it would indeed be the height of folly now again to enter into negotiations with the Chinese, after the ample experience we have had of their total want of good faith. They probably, by these offers, wish to gain time, in order, at some future moment, again to break their promises, whenever they may hope to be able to maneuver to attack the English with any advantage.

The number of fire-rafs prepared by the Chinese must have been enormous; they have been sent on all parts of the river between Canton and the Bogue; some were sent down upon the Wellesley, (anchored off the Bogue) from Chuenpee; others at Second Bar upon the Fattay Salam (ashore there) and the Sealby Castle, and the Naval Senior Commander has, we fear, issued a notice to the Chinese that any village from which a fire-raft shall be sent to come, or the village nearest to the spot whence the fire-raft shall have been sent, is to be destroyed, so as not to leave one stone upon another.

In prosecution of this threat the Sulphur and Alligator have completely destroyed a village near Half-way Pagoda, where fire-rafts had been sent among the British shipping, and it is to be hoped that this severe example may have the desired effect. H. M. Plenipotentiary has also issued a proclamation to the people of Canton, saying that having on several occasions been treacherously dealt with by the Emperor's Commissioners, he now intends to drive their troops out of Canton, and warns the peaceful people that they are to suffer for the faults of their mandarins.

On Friday, the 21st instant, all foreigners left Canton, pursuant to the above notice of Capt. Elliott, and went to Whampoa, or retired on board boats in the river, with the exception of Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Morse, two American merchants.—Immediately on the factories being thus abandoned, the mob broke in, and were, with great difficulty, driven back by the soldiery, who wanted no sharers in the plunder.

The above-named gentlemen were in great danger of violence from the mob and soldiers, but Mr. Morse succeeded, by the assistance of a mandarin, to escape to the river and into a boat in which he reached Whampoa in safety, while Mr. Coolidge was, probably with a view to his protection, carried into the city. A boat, from the American ship Morrison, which, with a crew of four, and three passengers, Messrs. Taylor, Miller, and Guillerrez, left Canton for Whampoa on Friday, was near the French Folly, fired upon by the Chinese, and, trying to escape by seeking shelter on board a tea-boat, on the southern bank of the river, the passengers and crew were followed by the soldiers, who very severely maltreated them, and then carried them prisoners to the authorities at Canton.

The American Vice-Consul went to Canton to demand the release of his countrymen, and, we suppose, it was in consequence of his remonstrance that they were set at liberty in front of the factories, exposed to insults from the mob, although they had repeatedly but ineffectually demanded to be delivered to their countrymen at Whampoa, or on board an English ship of war. Without the means of getting from Canton, they had no other means of safety but to seek for shelter in the Consol-house, where, having reached, they were shut up and remained for several days without food, apparently forgotten, until on the 24th, Capt. Elliott, who we suppose, must have been informed of their position, went there with a strong detachment of troops and released them from their imprisonment, sending them to Whampoa.

We are sorry to say that Mr. Miller has been very badly wounded, that his life is despaired of; one of the crew is likewise missing, probably killed, and all the others are more or less wounded, suffering from the privations they have endured.—Mr. Coolidge has been liberated in the same manner as the others.

We omitted to state in the foregoing account of the hostilities at Canton, that H. M. S. Algerine, after the forces had arrived at Canton, was placed opposite the Dutch folly, which the Chinese had strongly fortified, and from whence a fire was soon opened upon the vessel, which was returned with interest; the Chinese, however, defended the place with great determination, but it was at last carried. We regret, however, to learn, that the loss in killed and wounded, of the Algerine, has been very severe, particularly among the boat parties that were sent to carry the fort and several other masked batteries; a Lieutenant of the ship, whose name we did not learn, had, it is reported, his leg carried off by a cannon ball.

[Extract of a Letter, dated Macao, May 30, 1841]

Messrs. Cary & Co.—Since the date of our general advices events of much importance have transpired, a brief note of which may be interesting to you.

On the 24th, General Gough was landing his troops, 1800 men, at the foot of the heights in the rear of the city, and on the morning of the 25th he commenced operations, particulars of the day's work are not yet known, further than that with a loss of some forty killed and wounded, four batteries were taken from the Chinese, and great numbers of their officers and soldiers killed, the heights commanding the city taken, and the British forces entrenched upon them.

The loss of the Chinese on this occasion is variously estimated at 3000 to 5000, and even as high as 10,000 men, and they now find to their cost and extreme disappointment that they are unable to cope with European troops on shore, as they have before proved themselves in their encounters with British forces afloat.

On the 26th, the vessels of war were engaged in quieting and destroying the few remains of opposition, and in the evening, Mandarins called on Captain Elliott, with flags of truce, to negotiate for the preservation of the city.

Our advices from the seat of action and negotiation are to the morning of the 27th, when it was said that the Chinese had capitulated and offered a very large sum of money for the ransom of the city, which it was supposed would then be saved.

It is scarcely necessary for us to say, that since the 11th, nothing has been done in the way of sales of imports, and that all shipments of teas, &c., cease on the 21st; our establishment, in common with all others, is again removed to Macao, and we fear with a prospect of being obliged to remain here for several months, inasmuch as in the event of a suspension of hostilities, and Canton being left without further injury, we do not think the British merchants will trust themselves there while the British forces are drawn off to the northward. We think it will be found necessary to renew the blockade of the port, and the most that we can hope for under almost any circumstances is that neutrals may proceed to Canton, to realize the foreign merchandise deposited there, and to complete the lading of the ships already in port.

We are without late intelligence from India, but Commodore Bremer is daily expected on the steamer Queen, to resume command of the Naval forces, and it is understood that a reinforcement of eight regiments, about 6,500 men, is now on the way from China to India.

We enclose a report of the cargo of the Narragansett, by which you will see that the total export since 1st July of last year, is only 30,000 chests. We doubt if the lading of the American ships at Whampoa will be completed without much delay; and viewing the state and prospect of foreign relations with China, in whatever light we may, still we look upon it as almost certain, that high prices for teas must and will rule in Europe and America for the ensuing year or two.

FATAL CASUALTY.—Mr. Elijah Reed, of Falmouth, was killed at Windsor on Wednesday.—He was in the midst of a vast concourse, attending a horse race, of which he was an ardent follower, and he was run over and killed instantly. The crowd was formed of persons from all parts of Hants and the neighborhood, who were called to Windsor to attend the business of the Supreme Court, and who, to relieve the dullness of lounging around the Court House, contrived the race, which occasioned this melancholy disaster. Mr. Reed was generally respected, and formerly carried on business in this city.—Hal. Rec.

DEATH OF MR. FORSYTH.—The Baltimore Patriot of the 22d instant, says, "We regret to learn that the Hon. John Forsyth, the Secretary of State, under Mr. Van Buren's administration, died at Washington last night, about nine o'clock. He had been sick for some time with bilious fever."

Mr. Peale, the travelling Agent of the New York Albion, presented yesterday with a copy of the highly beautiful engraving of Windsor Castle, which is now being most generously delivered to the subscribers free of expense, and certainly gives the talented Editor and Proprietor of that excellent periodical, an additional claim to the patronage of the public.—Mr. P. will receive the names of new subscribers for the Albion, or for the European, a newspaper published at Liverpool (in connection with the Albion,) on the days the mail steamers leave for Halifax.

The next Mail to meet the sailing of the Steamer from Halifax, will be closed at the Post Office on Saturday, the 13th instant, at half-past 11 A. M.

Married. On the 28th ultimo, by the Rev. Mr. Busby, William Cleveland, of Sheffield, to Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Adam Bennett of this place.

Died. On the 24th ult. at his residence in Wakefield, Arthur Blaney Walsh, Esq., aged 48 years, a Lieut. in His Majesty's late Royal West India Rangers, and He filed the office of a Magistrate for several years in the Counties of York and Carleton, and has left a widow and a numerous circle of connections and friends to deplore their loss.

At Saint John, on Tuesday morning, after a tedious illness, Eliza Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Matthew Thomas, in the 20th year of her age.—Same place, on Wednesday morning, after a severe illness, Margaret Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the Rev. Robert Wilson, aged seven years. The tokens of a renewed spirit, which she manifested during her life, have comforted the hearts of her bereaved parents and friends, with the sweet assurance that her sufferings were but the prelude to her enjoyment of eternal rest and glory.

At Woodstock, on Monday evening the 25th ult., Jane, wife of Mr. James M. Lauchlan, Editor of The Telegraph, and youngest daughter of the Rev. Archibald McCulloch, in the 30th year of her age, leaving an affectionate husband and four children to lament their loss. While her relatives mourn their bereavement, they sorrow, not as those without hope. Mrs. M. was brought to a knowledge of the truth, as it is in Jesus, upwards of eleven years since, and during her last illness, which she bore with christian fortitude and pious resignation, she frequently expressed her trust in Christ, and reliance upon Him as the rock of her salvation.

At the residence of his daughter, in Saint George, on the 13th ult., Mr. Ephraim Young, aged 88 years and 3 months. Mr. Young was one of the earliest settlers of Saint Andrews, and lived there before a frame-house was erected in that place; he has lived with his wife, who survives him, nearly 66 years, and is the progenitor of 264 descendants, as follows:—13 children; 108 grand children; 140 great-grand-children; and 3 great-great-grand-children. At the advanced age of 80 years, after having passed through many hardships, he united with the Baptist Church in Saint George, of which he remained a faithful and consistent member until his death, leaving a numerous circle of friends to mourn their loss, not as those who mourn without hope.
