As it has been considered necessary that a more systematic division and arrangement of the Official and other Notices in the Royal Gazette should be immediately adopted, we have to announce to our readers and the public generally, that this number will close the series of the Gazette in its present shape. In the first week of the ensuing month it will appear in the convenient and portable Quarto form, without, however, diminishing the size of the sheet on which it has hitherto been issued. The Official documents from the public departments of Government; Orders of Courts of Justice and Magistracy; Sheriff's advertisements, &c. &c. will take precedence of the non-official articles, which will form a weekly Supplement to the Gazette.

It is also our intention to select Tuesday as our publishing day, which will afford us an earlier opportunity of preparing the Gazette for the departure of the Mails on the following day, but of this and other new arrangements, notice will be given in our next number.

The Mail to meet the sailing of the Steamer from Halifax, will be closed at the Post Office, on Saturday the 26th instant, at half-past Ten in the forenoon.

Married.
