B. ROBINSON, P. T.

Treasury, Saint John, 8th October, 1842.

ADDRESS:

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

"We, the Magistrates, Merchants, and other inhabitants of the County of Restigouche, beg leave, most respectfully, to thank Your Excellency for this early visit to this distant section of your Government, and beg to assure Your Excellency, that we hail your presence among us at this advanced season of the year, affected as it must be at the expense of much personal fatigue and inconvenience, as strongly indicative of your Excellency's lively and general interest in the welfare and prosperity of the people entrusted to your care, by our Most Gracious Sovereign.

"We would also take this occasion of reiterating our expressions of attachment and affection to Her Majesty's person and government.

"We trust Your Excellency may experience pleasure and gratification by your visit, and may return in safety to the seat of Government."

REPLY:

"GENTLEMEN,

"I cannot but feel much impressed with your cordial reception of me, and I can assure you, that so far from regarding my visit to Restigouche, as attended with inconvenience from the lateness of the season, I have derived from it the greatest gratification, as well in the opportunity of personal communication with you, as in witnessing the spirit with which you have improved, in so short a time, the great natural advantages of this important district.

"The impression I have formed of these advantages is such as to lead me to entertain a sanguine hope, that the temporary depression to which this, in common with other parts of the Province, have been subject, will be succeeded by an early revival of prosperity, and with improved experience of the Agricultural, as well as of the Commercial resources of the Province.

"I can assure you that you do not overrate the interest I take in your welfare, and which is due to you from the Representative of a Sovereign to whose Person and Government you are so affectionately attached.

"I request you, Gentlemen, to accept my sincere acknowledgements for your personal good wishes."

ADDRESS:

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

"We, the Clergy, Magistrates, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the County of Gloucester, have much pleasure in congratulating Your Excellency on your arrival in this distant quarter of your Government.

"We highly appreciate the motives that must have influenced Your Excellency to undertake such a long and fatiguing journey, at this advanced period of the year, as it offers to us a strong evidence of Your Excellency's earnest desire to obtain a correct knowledge of the condition and circumstances of all parts of the Province, through personal observation and communication with the inhabitants.

"We are happy to have this opportunity of repeating to Her Majesty's Representative our expressions of sincere attachment and loyalty to Her Majesty's Person and Government.

"We exceedingly regret the circumstances that prevent Your Excellency making a longer stay amongst us; at the same time we
