

To the Freeholders of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,

INFLUENCED by the flattering request of many persons, whose good opinion I indeed value, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election. The shortness of the time, together with the difficulties of travelling, will, I fear, prevent me from personally enlarging an acquaintance, which I regret at present is so limited; but being as unable as I am unwilling to enter into contest or expense, I must only leave the result to the unbiassed deliberation of an independent Constituency.

Gentlemen, permit me to add, that should you honor me with the high trust which your confidence would impose, no exertion shall be spared on my part to forward the best interests of my native Province.

I have the honor to be
Your obedient servant,

G. BOTSFORD.

Fredericton, December 7, 1842.

To the Independent Freeholders of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING been long since solicited by many friends to come forward at the first Election that should take place for this County, as a Candidate to represent you in General Assembly, and from the kind and flattering assurances of support which I have received from time to time from all persons residing in every section of this County, and solely relying on their kindness, I beg leave with much diffidence now to offer myself as a Candidate for the honor of representing you in the General Assembly of this Province.

Owing to the notice of the dissolution of the late House being kept back to the (I may say) last hour, contrary to the expectations of the public, and the Writs being made returnable on the fourteenth day of next month, I regret that the shortness of the time, and the bad state of the roads at the present season, will not admit of my seeing you personally previous to the opening of the Poll.

Should you therefore be pleased to confide in me your invaluable trust, I shall endeavour to return it to you unsullied, by discharging my duty with fidelity, zeal and attention.

I have the honor to remain, Gentlemen,
Your faithful and humble servant,
GEORGE F. H. MINCHIN.

Fredericton, December 9, 1842.

To the Freeholders of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING for many years been honored with the confidence of the constituency of this County, as one of the Representatives in the General Assembly, I beg to inform you that it is my intention to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election, and to assure you that should I have the honor of being again returned, my continued exertions shall be employed in advancing the true interests of the Province, in doing which, the prosperity of the County of York will be best consulted.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
JAMES TAYLOR.

Fredericton, December 9, 1842.
