Thus: Scheme 6 may be altered by making the first Instalment payable on the Twenty second Day after the Loan, and taking Seven pence per Pound for Interest, and so of the rest.

The following is the Substance and effect of the Regulations as to granting Loans and the Repayment thereof.

PERSONS TO WHOM LOANS MAY BE GRANTED.—All persons being householders or lodgers within the district, possessing furniture, producing certificates of their industry, sobriety, frugality, and general good character, and giving security as hereinafter mentioned.

EXCEPTIONS.—Such being the class of persons whom the Society considers properly qualified for its assistance, it necessarily follows that those who do not pursue commendable occupations will be excluded both as Borrowers and Sureties, particularly keepers of Houses of an immoral description, Spirit Shops, &c.

AMOUNT OF LOANS AND TERMS OF GRANTING THEM.—The Loans will be granted in Sums not less than £2 nor more than £15, for which interest must be paid down at the rate of three-pence for every pound, and security given for the repayment thereof by the Promissory Note of the Applicant and one approved Surety where the Loan does not exceed £5; two Sureties from that sum to £10; and three Sureties from that sum to £15, except so far as the Board of Managers may think fit to modify the same; such repayment to be made by weekly Instalments at the rate of one shilling in the pound, to commence at the end of four weeks from the time of granting the Loan. No second Loan will be granted until the first is repaid, nor (except in such cases as the board may approve) will any person be accepted Surety for more than one Loan at one time.

MODE OF APPLICATION, &c.—The Office of the Society will be open every Monday Morning, from Ten to One, and at no other time, for the purpose of receiving applications for Loans, and delivering the necessary forms; for which and for making the requisite inquiries thereon, every Applicant will have to pay one shilling.

The several questions must be truly answered, and the requisitions strictly complied with, according to the directions therein given, or no attention will be paid to the application. A preference will be given to those Applicants whose certificates as to character appear to be most satisfactory, and as the Society will rely much on the certificates, they trust that proper precaution will be used in giving them. When the application is properly filled up and signed, it must be returned to the Office on the following or any subsequent day, when it will be numbered or dated as received. The Agent will then make the necessary inquiries into the situation and character of the Applicant, and the responsibility of the persons proposing themselves as his Sureties, and will make his Report thereon
