Windsor Castle, August 27, 1842.

The Queen was this day pleased to confer the honor of Knight-hood upon Charles George Young, Esquire, Garter Principal King at Arms; to invest him with the gold chain and badge, and to deliver to him the sceptre of the office of Garter.

War Office, 26th August, 1842.

In consideration of the distinguished gallantry displayed by the 13th Light Infantry, during the campaigns in the Burmese Empire and in Affghanistan, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to approve of that Regiment assuming the title of the 13th, or Prince Albert's Regiment of Light Infantry, and of its facings being changed from yellow to blue.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to authorise the 13th Regiment of Light Infantry being permitted to bear on its colours and appointments, a mural crown, superscribed Jellalabad, as a memorial of the fortitude, perseverance, and enterprise evinced by that Regiment, and the several Corps which served during the blockade of Jellalabad.

Her Majesty has been likewise pleased to permit the 13th Regiment to receive and wear a silver medal, which has been directed by the Governor General of India to be distributed to every officer, non-commissioned officer, and private, European and Native, who belonged to the garrison of Jellalabad on the 7th April, 1842, such medal to bear on one side a mural Crown, superscribed Jellalabad, and on the other side, 7th April, 1842.
