

At Stanley, on Saturday the 1st instant, the Lady of Captain Hayne of a daughter.

Married.

At St. John's, Newfoundland, on Monday, September the 5th, by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, Henry John Harvey, Esquire, Lieutenant Royal Navy, and second son of His Excellency Major General Sir John Harvey, K. C. B. & K. C. H., to Ella Louisa, eldest daughter of Aubrey George, Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.

On the 1st instant, by the Rev. D. M'Curdy, Mr. George R. Gallop, to Miss Eliza Ann Long, both of the Parish of Kingsclear.

Died.

On Saturday the 1st instant, in the 34th year of her age, Rachael, wife of Mr. James Wortman, of this place. During a painful and protracted illness, she possessed the supporting influence of Religion. She waited with patience for her Saviour's call, when her soul should quit this earthly tabernacle, in joyful hope of a better world.

On Wednesday September 23th, Isabella Jane, only daughter of Mr. S. D. M'Pherson, aged two years and thirteen days.

At Burton, on Sunday the 25th instant, Millicent Peters, eldest daughter of Mr. Samuel A. Nevers, aged three years.

At his residence, Nashwaak, on Thursday last, at 12 o'clock, the Rev. Samuel M'Masters, Wesleyan Missionary, in the 37th year of his age. Mr. M'M. has been upwards of five years employed in preaching the Gospel on various circuits, and has always been esteemed as well for his firmness and integrity of character as for his zeal and faithfulness. In his death the Society with which he was connected has lost one of its most active and laborious Ministers. At the last District Meeting he was appointed to this circuit, and during the short period which has since elapsed, he has been "instant in season and out of season" in sowing besides all waters the precious seed of the Gospel. His illness was short and severe; and of such a nature as generally to deprive him of consciousness; but the few lucid intervals with which he was favoured, gave him an opportunity of testifying in the most decided and unequivocal manner, of his interest in Christ, and of his assurance that "to die" would be gain.

The funeral will take place to-day. The body will be brought to the Chapel in this Town at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when all friends and the public generally are requested to attend.
