REMARKS.

In the Columns headed "Parsonage House" "Glebe" the mark .. denotes that there is a Parsonage House or Glebe, as the case may be.

The form in which this return is required does not admit of a complete return of the state of the Church. There are many congregations held in School Houses and other consecrated buildings at various and sometimes great distances from the Clergymen's residences, without which accommodation in the present state of the Province hardly any Country Parish could be effectually served. Of these congregations, a complete statement has not yet been obtained, but the return made for the year 1836 to the Archdeacon, specify 47 congregations besides those which meet in Churches and Chapels, and comprize from 3300 to 3800 persons.

In returning the value of the living the fixed income from Glebe is only given.

The income of the Clergyman is in all cases derived from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and was formerly £200 sterling to each Rector, but this has lately been subjected to a reduction of £25 per cent. with regard to those who were in their service previously to 1833; and 50 per cent. to those of more recent appointment. The Curates receive from the Society £75 each.

In addition to the income derived from the Society some Clergymen have received voluntary contributions from the Parishioners, but no complete return has been obtained.

ABSTRACT.—No. of Livings, 25; Rectors, 20; Curates, 4; Parsonage Houses, 13; Glebes, 29; Churches, 48; Chapels built or building, 9. The Churches will accommodate about 13,490; number of persons generally attending from 5,760 to 6000, to which may be added, for Congregations which meet in unconsecrated places 3,300 to 3,800, making a total of attendance, as shewn by the returns, from 9,060 to 9,800.

There are two travelling Missionaries in connexion with the Church of England.
