GEORGE SHORE, A. G. M.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE ROYAL GAZETTE.]

Saint Andrews, 22d October, 1842.

SIR,—The enclosed Address from the Church Corporation of this place to the Lieutenant Governor, with His Excellency's Reply thereto, I have been requested to send to you.

Your obedient Servant,

GEO. D. STREET.

ADDRESS:

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN
GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,—

We, Her Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestry of All Saints Church, in the Parish of Saint Andrews, beg leave to offer to Your Excellency our very respectful congratulations on your arrival in this Town, this being the first opportunity afforded us of officially addressing Your Excellency on your assumption of the Government of this Province.

Attached from principle to that portion of the Catholic Church of Christ, of which we profess ourselves members, we have felt very lively gratification at the appointment of a person of Your Excellency's religious principles, to represent our Most Gracious and beloved Sovereign in this Province, and have viewed with much satisfaction Your Excellency's judicious and unwearied exertions in improving the system of Education hitherto pursued in this Country, and in the charitable and humane endeavours which you have made to relieve the poor during the severe pecuniary pressure with which we all have been and are still visited; and most sincerely do we hope that Your Excellency may meet that reward here which every good man desires to receive, the happiness of seeing the success of all his exertions for the public good, in the increase of public welfare, both spiritual and temporal; and that the utility of our pure and Apostolic Church may be increased, as well as all her interests promoted under the administration of a Governor whom we are most happy in addressing as a member thereof.

Wishing Your Excellency, your amiable Lady and family every blessing from the Providence of God, we beg to offer this token of our respect and regard.

In the name and on behalf of the Corporation.

JEROME ALLEY, D. D., Rector.

THOMAS WYER, }
PETER SMITH, } Church Wardens.

Saint Andrews, October 21, 1842.

REPLY:

To the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestry, of All Saints Church, in the Parish of Saint Andrews.

REVEREND SIR AND GENTLEMEN,

Not having an opportunity of meeting you formally, when I visited Saint Andrews in the last year, I am gratified in receiving the Address you have presented to me on the present occasion.

As a Member of the Church of England, it is pleasing to me to recognize in this distant quarter of Her Majesty's Dominions, the salutary influence of an Establishment, in which the principles of religious freedom and of christian purity are so happily blended.

You justly appreciate the importance of a sound system of Education, to the well being of every Country, and aware of the disposition of the Legislature of this Province to make liberal provision for its attainment, I have endeavoured, as far as has been hitherto practicable, to give effect to these views for the benefit of the people.

The charitable disposition of the inhabitants has been more than usually called forth, by the aggravated distress which has prevailed amongst the poorer classes in the last year, but I hope that an abundant harvest, with which it has pleased Divine Providence to reward the labors of the husbandman, will alleviate their sufferings in the approaching winter.

Uniting cordially in the wish which you have expressed for their spiritual and temporal welfare, and for the extended aid of the Church in the advancement of it, I request you, Gentlemen, to accept my sincere acknowledgments for the expression of your good wishes for Lady Colebrooke and my family.
