ADDRESS FROM THE MAGISTRATES, CLERGY, AND OTHER INHABITANTS OF QUEEN'S COUNTY.

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN
 GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.
 We, the Magistrates, Clergy and others, Inhabitants of Queen's County, offer our grateful thanks to Your Excellency for the visit with which you have now honored us.

The labor and zeal which Your Excellency has manifested in the discharge of the high and responsible duties of your office, merit our full approbation.

As Her Majesty's Representative in this Province, we beg leave to express to Your Excellency the devoted feelings of loyalty and attachment which we bear to Her Majesty's Person and Government.

We hope Your Excellency will find cause to be satisfied with the visit which you have, at much personal inconvenience we fear, paid to this portion of your Government, and that Your Excellency will recognize our regret at not having it in our power to give Your Excellency that satisfaction which a more seasonable time of the year would afford.

We most cordially unite in expressing our best wishes for the health, happiness, and welfare of yourself, Lady Colebrooke, and family.

(Signed) N. H. DEVEBER, High Sheriff, on their behalf.

REPLY :

To the Magistrates, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,—The gratification I have experienced in visiting you at this time in the discharge of my public duties has been greatly enhanced by the manner in which you have done me the honor to receive me. I can assure you that the knowledge I have acquired of the condition of the Province from opportunities I have recently had of personal observation and of communication with the inhabitants of every class, have amply compensated me for any labour which has attended my circuit.

The expression of your loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty's Person and Government is most acceptable to me as Her Representative, and I request to offer you my sincere thanks for this declaration of your feelings.

The central position of this County, added to other advantages which it possesses, will, I hope, ensure to it a continuance of prosperity, and it will afford me the highest gratification if enabled to aid the accomplishment of any object interesting to its inhabitants.

Accept, Gentlemen, my grateful acknowledgements for your good wishes towards me, and for Lady Colebrooke and my family, who would have been gratified if circumstances had enabled them to accompany me on the occasion of my visit to Gagetown.
