

ROYAL GAZETTE.

[SUPPLEMENT.]

FREDERICTON, NEW BRUNSWICK, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1842.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor having visited the several Counties of Carleton, Northumberland, Kent, Westmorland, Saint John and Charlotte in the last year, proceeded in the last week to Gloucester and Restigouche, and returned again to this place on Monday last. We understand it to be His Excellency's intention to proceed to Saint Andrews and Saint Stephen in the next week, and returning by Saint John to visit Queen's, King's and Sunbury before the close of the season.

We have much pleasure in publishing the following Addresses to His Excellency from the Magistrates, Clergy, &c. &c., of the Counties of Gloucester and Restigouche, with His Excellency's answers thereto:—

*To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN
GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.*

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

"We, the Magistrates, Merchants, and other inhabitants of the County of Restigouche, beg leave, most respectfully, to thank Your Excellency for this early visit to this distant section of your Government, and beg to assure Your Excellency, that we hail your presence among us at this advanced season of the year, affected as it must be at the expense of much personal fatigue and inconvenience, as strongly indicative of Your Excellency's lively and general interest in the welfare and prosperity of the people entrusted to your care, by our Most Gracious Sovereign.

"We would also take this occasion of reiterating our expressions of attachment and affection to Her Majesty's person and government.

"We trust Your Excellency may experience pleasure and gratification by your visit, and may return in safety to the seat of Government."

"GENTLEMEN,

"I cannot but feel much impressed with your cordial reception of me, and I can assure you, that so far from regarding my visit to Restigouche, as attended with inconvenience from the lateness of the season, I have derived from it the greatest gratification, as well in the opportunity of personal communication with you, as in witnessing the spirit with which you have improved, in so short a time, the great natural advantages of this important district.

"The impression I have formed of these advantages is such as to lead me to entertain a sanguine hope, that the temporary depression to which this, in common with other parts of the Province, have been subject, will be succeeded by an early revival of prosperity, and with improved experience of the Agricultural as well as of the Commercial resources of the Province.

"I can assure you that you do not overrate the interest I take in your welfare, and which is due to you from the Representative of a Sovereign to whose Person and Government you are so affectionately attached.

"I request you, Gentlemen, to accept my sincere acknowledgements for your personal good wishes."

*To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN
GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.*

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

"We, the Clergy, Magistrates, Merchants, and other inhabitants of the County of Gloucester, have much pleasure in congratulating Your Excellency on your arrival in this distant quarter of your Government.

"We highly appreciate the motives that must have influenced Your Excellency to undertake such a long and fatiguing journey, at this advanced period of the year, as it offers to us a strong evidence of Your Excellency's earnest desire to obtain a correct knowledge of the condition and circumstances of all parts of the Province, through personal observation and communication with the inhabitants.

"We are happy to have this opportunity of repeating to Her Majesty's Representative our expression of sincere attachment and loyalty to Her Majesty's Person and Government.

"We exceedingly regret the circumstances that prevent Your Excellency making a longer stay amongst us, at the same time we trust Your Excellency may be gratified by your visit, and that it may be repeated under more favourable circumstances, when the present Commercial depression which bears so heavily upon this community, in common with most others in these Colonies, shall have passed away."

Bathurst, 8th October, 1842.

"GENTLEMEN,

"The gratification I have derived from my visit to this part of the Province has been enhanced by the cordial reception I have met with from all classes of its inhabitants; and I request you to believe that the opportunities of personal communication with you it has afforded to me, have more than compensated for any trouble attending the journey at this season.

"I thank you for your expression of loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty's Person and Government—the sincerity of which I fully appreciate.

"Although I could have wished to have been able to spend a longer time amongst you, I could not be more fully informed than I am with the great natural resources of this district, and the spirit with which you have improved them.

"I lament the temporary depression to which the Province has been subject. I am aware that the trial has been severe, but the experience the inhabitants have acquired of the sure means of their prosperity will be favourable to their future advancement; and I indulge a hope that the greatest difficulties have been already surmounted.

"I request, Gentlemen, to return you my sincere acknowledgements for your gratifying Address."

CHURCH SOCIETY.

MEETING AT PRINCE WILLIAM.

Agreeably to a given notice, a Meeting was held at St. Clement's Church on Wednesday the 5th of October, for the purpose of organizing and establishing a Local Committee of the Church Society of this Province. As this was the first Meeting of the kind ever held in this quarter, the Venerable Archdeacon Coster kindly consented to attend and to preach on the occasion. Accordingly at 11 o'clock of the day which has been named, the Church was opened for Divine Service, when the Rev. S. D. Lee Street, Rector of Woodstock, officiated in the desk, and the Venerable the Archdeacon preached an able and suitable sermon from Luke 12th chap. 21st verse, "So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God."

Immediately after the Discourse was delivered, it was Moved, That the Venerable the Archdeacon do take the Chair.

The Venerable the Chairman then addressed the Meeting at some length, showing the liberality that had been manifested and was still manifested even in these times of difficulty and distress, by the Members of the Church in the Parent Country. After which, he made an earnest appeal to those around him, to contribute according to their ability, to the objects of that Society, the cause of which he was then advocating.

The Rev. the Rector of Woodstock next addressed the Meeting, stating the beneficial results that had followed from the Members of the Church in his Parish attaching themselves to this Society, and showing what benefit would probably accrue to these Parishes from doing the same. He then brought before the notice of those