ADDRESS FROM THE HIGH SHERIFF, MAGISTRATES AND OTHER INHABITANTS OF THE COUNTY OF SUNBURY.

To His Excellency Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, the High Sheriff, Magistrates and others, inhabitants of the County of Sunbury, beg leave respectfully to welcome Your Excellency on your arrival among us, and to assure Your Excellency that in no part of our Most Gracious Majesty's Dominions, are the inhabitants more firmly attached to Her Majesty's Person and Government, and more fully sensible of the glorious Constitution under which they have the happiness to live.

We regret that Your Excellency did not visit us earlier in the season, as it would have enabled Your Excellency, who has always evinced great interest in Agriculture, to have seen this fine portion of your government before the Harvest was over.

With best wishes for the health and happiness of Your Excellency, Lady Colebrooke and family,

We are, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) J. HAZEN, Sheriff, on their behalf.
 Sunbury, 8th November, 1842.

REPLY:

To the High Sheriff, Magistrates, and other Inhabitants of the County of Sunbury.

GENTLEMEN,—You could not have afforded me a more gratifying welcome than in the expression of your firm attachment to Her Majesty's Person and Government, and your appreciation of the Constitution under which we have the happiness to live.

It has been most interesting to me to witness in every part of the Province which I have visited during the present season, an ardent desire to call forth its Agricultural resources, in which you justly observe that I take a great interest; and in no quarter have I observed more successful efforts than in this County, where I hope, under Providence, you will continue to reap the advantages of your zealous application to this noble pursuit.

I return you my cordial acknowledgments for your good wishes for myself, and for Lady Colebrooke and my family, who are equally gratified in the opportunity of meeting you on this occasion.
