

GOVERNMENT ADVERTISEMENT.

VARIOUS reports having been made to the Government respecting extensive Tracts of Land, reserved for the Indians throughout the Province, which not being required for the occupation of that People, it is desirable to reclaim and improve for their benefit:—Persons who may be desirous of settling on these Lands, are hereby informed, that applications, by Petition, to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, will be received through the Surveyor General's Office, for Leases of portions thereof; such applications to state the situation, extent and nature of the Land they wish to occupy; and where Leases may be granted, the expense of the Survey must be defrayed by the applicant, who will be required to deposit a sum sufficient for that purpose.

By Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

WM. F. ODELL.
