

as aforesaid, and not being battered, before the same shall have been so assayed, stamped, and marked as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to the like penalties and forfeitures in all respects, and to be recoverable in the same manner, as the penalties and forfeitures now by Law imposed upon Goldsmiths and Silversmiths, selling, exchanging, or exposing to sale in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively any Ware or Manufacture of Gold or Silver Plate made or wrought in England, Scotland, or Ireland, respectively, and not assayed, stamped, and marked as required by Law: Provided always, That no article or ware of Gold or Silver so to be imported as aforesaid shall be liable to be assayed, stamped, or marked as aforesaid, which would not be liable to be assayed, stamped, or marked if it had been wrought or made in England.

LX. And be it enacted, That in order that Gold and Silver Plate so imported as aforesaid may be assayed, stamped, and marked, it shall and may be lawful for any person to send the same to any Assay Office in the United Kingdom at which Gold and Silver Plate is now by Law required to be assayed, and when so sent it shall be assayed, tested, stamped, and marked in such and the same manner, and be subject to such and the same charges, other than Stamp Duty, as if the same were British Plate by Law assayable in such Office; and the Wardens and Officers in each such Assay Offices, and the persons employed by them, shall have such and the same powers of assaying, touching, testing, marking, cutting, breaking or defacing such Gold and Silver Plate so sent to be assayed as are now by Law exercisable by such Wardens, Officers, and other persons in respect of Gold and Plate now by Law required to be assayed in such Assay Offices.

LXI. And whereas by an Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to allow Sugar to be delivered out of the Warehouse to be refined, provisions are made for ascertaining and taking, in manner therein mentioned, the prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar the produce of the British Possessions in America; And whereas it is expedient that the said provisions should extend and be applicable to Brown or Muscovado Sugar the produce of the British Possessions within the limits of the East India Company's Charter; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty two so much of the said last mentioned Act as provides for ascertaining and taking the prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar the produce of the British Possessions in America, and so much of the same Act as requires the delivery of accounts of the sales and purchases of such Sugar, and statements of the quantities and prices thereof, and other particulars therein mentioned in relation thereto, and the computation and publication of the average prices thereof, and the Registry of such accounts and prices, shall be held to extend, include, and apply to Brown and Muscovado Sugar the produce of the several British Possessions within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, and that the average price of Sugar to be thenceforth published under the said last mentioned Act, as hereby extended, shall be the average price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar the produce not only of the British Possessions in America but also of the British Possessions within the limits of the East India Company's Charter; and the several penalties of fifty pounds and of five pounds, imposed by the said recited Act for the offences therein mentioned in respect of Sugar the produce of the British Possessions in America, shall extend and be applicable to the like offences in respect of Sugar the produce of the British Possessions within the limits of the East India Company's Charter.

LXII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.
