OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF MILITIA,
 Fredericton, 14th August, 1843.

THE following additional subscriptions from the undermentioned Battalions, towards the expense of re-building Sir Isaac Brock's Monument, have been received since the publication of the Militia General Order of 6th December, 1841, and the amount forwarded to Canada:

Saint John Rifle Battalion,.....	£17	0	0
New Brunswick Regiment of Artillery,.....	9	0	0
1st Battalion Kent,.....	6	10	0
	£32	10	0

In a statement of the funds subscribed and published in the above mentioned Order of 6th December, 1841, a sum of £9 5 0 was inserted without the name of the Battalion subscribing, which was unknown at the time, and it was hoped that the publication would lead to enquiry; this sum was remitted with the rest of the subscriptions to the Adjutant General of Militia at Toronto:—It now appears to have been received from Major Yeamans, for the 2nd Battalion Queen's County Militia.
