DAVID COLLINS.

Saint John, Sept. 18, 1842.

(Extract.)

Saint John, 23d Sept. 1842.

With reference to the Patition of David Collins, for himself and fifty associates, which I forwarded on the 19th instant, praying for allotments of Land on the Pollet River, in the "Mechanics' Settlement," I crave leave to represent to Your Excellency, that the undermentioned persons, Mechanics and others, are desirous of being added to the list of Mr. Collins' associates, and to have allotments of Land in the same line of country, on the like terms and conditions.

The present applicants are as follows:—

1 Merchant,	5 Carpenters and Joiners,
7 Merchant's Clerks,	1 Wharf Builder,
16 Farmers,	1 Tanner,
4 Shipwrights,	4 Joiners,
1 Shoemaker,	1 Sailmaker,
2 Blacksmiths,	1 Cooper,
4 Cartmen,	1 Blockmaker,
1 Miller,	1 Saddler,
1 Brickmaker,	6 Miscellaneous.
4 Masons & Stonecutters,

On behalf of the foregoing parties, fifty seven in number, and with the approbation and consent of David Collins the Petitioner, I pray that these names may be added to the list of fifty set forth in Mr. Collins' Petition, and may be considered included therein as applicants for lands in the same township or line of country, being persons of sufficient means, desirous of actually settling on the lands which may be allotted them.

I also beg to represent in behalf of all the applicants for Lands in the "Mechanics' Settlement," that they are all stated to be protestants, the greater part belonging to the Wesleyan Methodist connexion, and that they earnestly desire suitable lands to be reserved for Churches and Schools in convenient situations.

(Signed)

M. H. PERLEY.

The Queen has confirmed an amended Act passed for establishing Corporations in the Bahamas. This Act was first passed in 1835, on the model of the English Act, and has been recently amended. The present Act authorizes the Governor in Council to grant Corporations to places having a population not less than four hundred persons. Harbour Island has recently been incorporated under this Act.
