PUBLIC MEETING.

On the requisition of several of the most respectable Inhabitants of Fredericton, a Public Meeting was called by the Deputy Sheriff on the 8th inst., at the County Court House, "for the purpose of preparing an Address to the 52nd Regiment, on the occasion of its immediate removal from Fredericton."

The Meeting having been organized by the appointment of the Hon. John S. Saunders to the Chair, and W. Watts, Jr. Esq. to the office of Secretary: The following Resolution was proposed by the Solicitor General—seconded by the Hon. George Shore, and unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That as Lieutenant Colonel Blois, with a part of the 52d Regiment under his command, are about leaving Fredericton, the Members of this Meeting are of opinion, that the high state of discipline in which the Regiment appears to have been kept—the social, friendly and gentlemanly feelings displayed by the Officers on all occasions, and the excellent conduct of the men since they have been quartered in this Garrison—call for a public expression (from the Magistrates and other Inhabitants of this Town and its immediate vicinity) of the high estimation in which the Regiment is held by all ranks in the community.

On motion of the Solicitor General—seconded as before, and carried unanimously:

Resolved, That an Address to Lieutenant Colonel Blois, be forthwith prepared, embodying the sentiments of the former Resolution, and that the same be sent round for signature.

The Solicitor General then submitted the draft of an Address, which having received some trifling amendments, was, on motion of Mr. James Willox—seconded by Mr. C. M'Pherson—unanimously adopted and directed to be engrossed—and on further motion, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the Hon. J. S. Saunders, the Hon. the Solicitor General, the Hon. George Shore, B. Wolhaupter, Asa Coy, Mark Needham, and Wm. Watts, Jr. Esquires, be a Committee to engross the Address, and get the same signed and presented, and that on the presentation of the Address the Committee shall be attended by as many of the inhabitants as may choose to accompany them.

The Chairman then left the Chair, and the Solicitor General having been called thereto, thanks were voted to the Hon. J. S. Saunders, and the Meeting adjourned.

The Committee immediately communicated with Lieutenant Colonel Blois, and were advised that he would receive the Address on Saturday at 2 o'clock P. M. at the Mess Room. According to this appointment, the Committee, accompanied by many of the most influential inhabitants, waited upon Col. Blois, when the subjoined Address, which had in the meantime been very numerously subscribed, was read and presented by the Hon. J. S. Saunders.

ADDRESS:

To Lieutenant Colonel WILLIAM BLOIS, Commanding Her Majesty's 52d Regiment of Light Infantry, now stationed at Fredericton, in the Province of New Brunswick.

SIR,—We, the Magistrates, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Fredericton and its immediate vicinity, having learnt, with much regret, that you, with a part of your Regiment, are about to leave Fredericton, cannot allow you to depart without expressing the high respect and esteem the community of this place entertain for the gallant corps under your Command.

We are aware, sir, that nothing we might say could add to the very great renown that has always been attached to your Regiment, as one of the finest and most distinguished in Her Majesty's Service: but, when a body of Soldiers (stationed in a Town like this, where spirituous liquors are so easily and cheaply obtained, and where the men have in consequence, so many temptations to transgress) conduct themselves with such strict adherence to the rules of discipline, accompanied by such orderly conduct on the part of all, as has been so prominently displayed by your Regiment during its occupation of this Garrison, it speaks volumes in favor of the judicious management of the person in Command, of the ready attention to discipline, by the officers under him, and of the good dispositions of the men.

We hold it, therefore, as an act of justice to our own feelings, as well as a pleasing duty to you and the Regiment, thus publicly to express our conviction, that its conduct in this place has been such as to do honor to Her Majesty's Service, credit to itself, and is in perfect unison with the high character it has always maintained.

We were prepared, sir, to expect this, from our knowledge of this Regiment while quartered in this Garrison at a former period; it was, therefore, with the more pleasure we heard of its coming here again, and though the members thereof, individually, were nearly all strangers to us, yet, looking on it as a body, we felt its return was that of an old and highly valued friend; and we are happy in having it in our power to assure you that our high esteem and warm regard for the Regiment, arising from our former intimacy with the then members thereof, has been cemented, and if possible, strengthened by our acquaintance with those of the present day, which leads us the more to regret your leaving us so soon.

We have only to add, Sir, that you, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Men of the Regiment, carry with you, not only the sentiments we have already expressed, but also our warmest and best wishes for the prosperity, comfort and happiness of you all.

We have the honor to be Sir,

Your most obedient servants,

JOHN S. SAUNDERS, Chairman of the Committee.

W. WATTS, Secretary to the Meeting.

To which Colonel Blois replied as follows:—

Gentlemen,—It is with difficulty that I can, in suitable terms, reply to the very flattering Address that you have been pleased to present to the Regiment which I have the honor to command, upon its departure from this Garrison.

Allow me to assure you, Gentlemen, that it is a source of infinite gratification to me to learn, that the conduct of the Regiment has not only merited your public approbation, but likewise been such as to improve the good feeling with which it was received on its first arrival, and moreover established that perfect harmony between itself and the Inhabitants of Fredericton, so essential to their mutual happiness.

It is pleasing to me also to observe, that the example set by the old corps during its previous tour of service in this Province, and to which you so handsomely allude, has not been lost sight of by the more youthful supporters of its ancient renown.

The high honor you have this day conferred upon all ranks, shall be fully made known to them, and in their behalf, Gentlemen, I take upon myself confidently to assert, that in whatever quarter of the Globe duty may call us; the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the 52nd Light Infantry, will always take the liveliest interest in the well being of this magnificent Colony, and entertain every wish and desire for its increasing prosperity.

With the highest respect,

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your most obd't. and very humble serv't.

W. BLOIS,

Lt. Col. Commanding 52nd Light Infantry.

To the Magistrates and other Inhabitants of the Town of Fredericton and its immediate vicinity.
