WM. B. PHAIR, Postmaster.

Died.

On Friday morning last, Mr. Thomas Taylor, Tailor, in the 58th year of his age. Mr. Taylor was a native of Port Glasgow, and landed in this Province in the year 1810. He came recommended, as having from his youth upward maintained an unblemished reputation, and to his latest hour his character stood high as a member of society both civil and religious. He was during twenty seven years united with the Wesleyan Society in this town, and lived and died amidst his brethren, respected and beloved of all. He has left a widow and five children, not only to deplore their loss, but also to revere his memory.

"Who can now lament the lot
Of a saint in Christ deceased?
Let the world who know us not
Call us hopeless and unblessed:
When from flesh the spirit freed
Hastens homeward to return,
Mortals cry 'A man is dead!'
Angels sing 'A child is born!'"

On the 5th instant, Moses Coburn, only son of Mr. George A. Perley, aged 10 months and 5 days.

At Saint John, on Tuesday evening last, in the 80th year of his age, David Hatfield, Esquire, leaving an aged widow, seven children, and a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn their bereavement. Mr. Hatfield was a most worthy and honourable citizen, and for nearly half a century, one of our leading Merchants. Thus has departed to his final rest, from the cares, afflictions and infirmities of this life, another of the Loyalists and founders of our city.
