ANSWER OF SIR CHARLES METCALFE TO THE CORPORATION ADDRESS.

To the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, in Her Majesty's Province of New Brunswick.

I beg you, Gentlemen, to accept my cordial thanks for the Address with which you have honored me.

It is highly gratifying to me to learn that the conduct which I pursued on a recent occasion, and the principles which I have advocated, have your approval and concurrence; and it is beyond measure delightful to me to receive the communication of the loyal and patriotic sentiments which you have expressed, and which are worthily inherited by the descendants of those loyalists of 1783, who spared no sacrifice to retain their allegiance to the British Crown, and their connection with the Mother Country.

While such feelings predominate, the welfare of the Colonies and the integrity of the British Empire will, under Divine Providence, be secured and perpetuated.—Both will be endangered whenever those trustworthy dictates of honest hearts and sound minds give way to wild speculation and a fretful agitation for extreme objects, that cannot be attained consistently with the preservation of those united blessings, which, I rejoice to see, you fervently and justly appreciate.

May the continuance of these and all other benefits be vouchsafed to you by our Almighty Father.
