ADDRESS

Of the House of Assembly of New Brunswick to the Governor General, with His Excellency's Reply.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, 22d February, 1844.

To His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir CHARLES THEOPHILUS METCALFE, Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, one of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Governor General of British North America, and Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Island of Prince Edward, and Vice Admiral of the same.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

May it please Your Excellency,

We, the Representatives of the People of New Brunswick, in Parliament assembled, deem it a duty we owe alike to Your Excellency, and the loyal constituency of this Province, to express our high admiration of the Constitutional principles promulgated by Your Excellency in the recent memorable conflict with Your Excellency's late advisers.

If this had occurred in a Colony unconnected with British North America, we might have abstained from a declaration of our sentiments ; but considering ourselves as a portion of Your Excellency's Government, we cannot refrain from offering an assurance of our firm determination to uphold Your Excellency in maintaining the Prerogatives of the Crown, invaded as we conceived them to have been, by the extraordinary claims of your late Council.

We appreciate too highly the inestimable blessings we enjoy under our benign Government, where the rights and privileges of all are well known and defined, to disregard any attempt at infringement, whether it be aimed at the Crown or the People ; and we therefore hesitate not to express our firm belief, that if the extravagant demands made upon Your Excellency had been granted, Monarchical Institutions on this Continent must soon have ceased to exist.

We indulge the confident expectation, that the noble stand Your Excellency has taken, will meet the approbation of our Most Gracious and Beloved Queen, and that the loyal People of British North America will be found ever ready to rally round Her Majesty's Representative, in maintaining principles so conducive to the happiness of the subject, and the safety, honor and dignity of the Crown.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, 15th March, 1844.

The following Reply from His Excellency was this day communicated to the House :—

TO THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

Gentlemen,

I receive with the highest satisfaction your Loyal and Patriotic Address, and thank you cordially for the assurance which it conveys of your determination to uphold me in maintaining the Prerogative of the Crown, against the attempt of certain Members of the late Executive Council of Canada, to extort stipulations which would have prostrated the Authority of Her Majesty's Government, and destroyed Monarchical Institutions in this Province.

It is the peculiar advantage of the British Constitution, that the Honor and Dignity of the Sovereign are in unison with the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and that no true Friend of the People seeks the degradation of the Crown.

I hail the sentiments expressed in your Address with the greater gratification, because I am sensible that they are poured forth from British Hearts, which would resist any invasion of the Liberties of the People, as firmly as they now reprobate a daring attack on the Royal Prerogative ; and I should receive with shame the support which you afford, were I not conscious that in defending the Prerogative of the Crown, I am no less resolved to uphold the Rights of the Subject, and to maintain inviolate the Institutions established in this Province, with an anxious desire to see them accomplish the welfare of the Community.

C. T. METCALFE.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber having obtained a Royal Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for a new and useful invention for manufacturing LEATHER, by which Hides and Skins can be tanned in less than one eighth of the time required by the old process—which Patent extends as well to the Colonies as to England ; and having filed in the Secretary's Office in this Province, a copy of the original specification of the said invention, the Patent is now in operation at the Tannery of Thos. R. Barker, of Fredericton, where the whole process can be seen and learned : This is therefore to give Public Notice, that any person who shall attempt to imitate, or use the said invention, will immediately be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the Law ; Notice is also given, that the Subscriber has appointed James R. Crane, Esq., of Saint John, his Agent to sell and dispose of the Right to use the said new invention, to such persons as may apply to him for that purpose.
