ADDRESS

Presented by the Officers of the First Battalion York County Militia to Lieutenant Colonel MINCHIN :

To the Honorable Lieutenant Colonel GEORGE MINCHIN, Commanding the First Battalion York County Militia.

SIR,—We, the Officers of the Battalion under your Command, having learned that you are about visiting your native Country, cannot permit you to depart without expressing the very high respect which we entertain for you as our Commanding Officer.

The zeal which you have at all times manifested for the Militia Service, combined as it has ever been with the utmost impartiality, and as much indulgence towards ourselves and the men under our command as consisted with a due regard to efficient discipline, demand of us this cordial expression of our esteem, and induce us to hope that we shall ere long welcome you back to our shores, and find you again at the head of the Battalion.

Wishing you a safe and happy voyage,

We have the honor to be, Sir,

With great respect, your obedient servants.

[Signed by Major Brannen and other Officers of the Battalion.]

REPLY.

To Major Brannen, the Officers of the first Battalion York County Militia, and the Rifle and African Companies.

GENTLEMEN,—I receive with peculiar feelings of gratification, which are more easily felt than described, the very high and flattering testimony of approbation which you have been pleased to bestow upon me, as your Commanding Officer, upon my departure from New Brunswick on a visit to my native Country, as conveyed in the Address which I have now the honor of receiving from you.

Your testimony of the zeal at all times manifested by me for the Militia Service, and of the impartial manner in which I have endeavoured to discharge my duty, and of the indulgence which you have been pleased to say I have evinced towards yourselves and the men under your command, affords me sincere pleasure.

My absence from amongst you will, I trust, be short. In the meantime except my warmest wishes for your prosperity and happiness, and should I be spared to return to this Country I shall resume with undiminished zeal my duty as Commanding Officer of the Battalion, and find great pleasure in renewing the relations of a cordial, happy and social intercourse with a Battalion in the efficiency and welfare of which I shall ever feel deeply and sincerely interested.

With the highest personal respect,

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble servant,

GEORGE MINCHIN,

Lt. Colonel Com. 1st Bat. York County Militia.
