

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber having obtained a Royal Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for a new and useful invention for manufacturing LEATHER, by which Hides and Skins can be tanned in less than one eighth of the time required by the old process—which Patent extends as well to the Colonies as to England; and having filed in the Secretary's Office in this Province, a copy of the original specification of the said invention, the Patent is now in operation at the Tannery of Thos. R. Barker, of Fredericton, where the whole process can be seen and learned: This is therefore to give Public Notice, that any person who shall attempt to imitate, or use the said invention, will immediately be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the Law; Notice is also given, that the Subscriber has appointed James R. Crane, Esq., of Saint John, his Agent to sell and dispose of the Right to use the said new invention, to such persons as may apply to him for that purpose.
