NOTICE.

CUSTOM HOUSE, ST. JOHN, N. B. Feb. 20, 1844.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the 6th and 7th years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend and continue for two years, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, the Laws in Ireland relative to the registering of Arms, and the importation, manufacture and sale of Arms, Gunpowder and Ammunition," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that "it shall not be lawful for any person to import or bring into Ireland any Gun, Pistol, or other Fire Arms, or any Stock, Lock, Barrel, or other part of any Gun, Pistol, or other Fire Arms, or any Bullets, Gunpowder, or Ammunition, without having first obtained a License for that purpose, under the hand of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or his or their Chief or Under Secretary; and that all such articles shall be forfeited to Her Majesty; and every importer or bringer thereof, whether owner thereof or not, shall for every such importation or bringing, forfeit any sum not exceeding Ten Pounds."

And whereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, that importations of Gun Stocks into Ireland have been made from British North America, contrary to the Provisions of the said Act:

In order to guard against a recurrence of any violation thereof, the Collector of Saint John, New Brunswick, in pursuance of directions from the said Commissioners, hereby gives Notice that the Penalty of £10 for every such importation, to which parties bringing Arms into Ireland may subject themselves, will, without fail, be strictly enforced.

HENRY BOWYER SMITH, Collector.
