1st.—That not more than 5,000 acres be reserved for each Gate.

2d.—No new Reserve to be granted, nor old Reserve continued, for a longer period than ten years, subject only to sale for actual settlement, but the same to be open for new applications at the expiration of the term for a continuation of the Reserve, upon good cause being shewn for preference to a renewal for the same Mill.

5th.—That all present Reserves exceeding 5,000 acres to each Gate, shall be reduced to that amount, but the proprietors of the Mills for which such Reserves have been made shall be entitled to a preference to so much of the overplus as they may select and apply for Licence to cut on, as old ground; provided such application shall come in on or before the 31st day of December next.

6th.—That every person having a right to any present existing Reserve which exceeds the before mentioned limit of 5,000 acres to each Gate, shall be at liberty to select from that Reserve such part thereof as he wishes to retain at the reduced rate, provided such selection be sent in to the Crown Land Office on or before the 31st day of December next, and when a Survey is necessary to lay off such selection, the same shall be made at his expense.
