

and appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, shall be and become and remain and continue vested in the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance in Great Britain, for the time being, and their successors in the said Office, according to the respective nature and quality of the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Estates and other Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same Hereditaments respectively in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the service of the said Ordnance Department, or for such other Public Service or Services as to the said Principal Officers, or their Successors in the said Office, shall from time to time order and direct.

Also Lands, &c. to be acquired.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the purchase and conveyance, grant or demise, or taking thereof, all other Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Estates and other Hereditaments which shall at any time or times hereafter be purchased, or by any other mode obtained by the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance for the time being, or by any other person or persons by their order, or be placed under their charge for the service of the said Ordnance Department, and all erections and buildings which shall then or which may be thereafter erected and built thereon, with the rights, members, easements and appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, by whatever mode of conveyance either unto, or in the name of, or in trust for, Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or howsoever otherwise the same shall be purchased or taken, shall in like manner be, and become, and remain, and continue vested in the said Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance for the time being, by the style and title of the principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance in Great Britain, and their Successors in Office, according to the nature and qualities of the said Messages, Lands, Tenements, Estates and other Hereditaments, and the several and respective Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively in trust as aforesaid.

Titles may be received, conveyances made, and actions brought by the style and title of The Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance in Great Britain.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance in Great Britain for the time being, by the style and title of the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance in Great Britain, shall be able and capable to accept, receive and obtain Title to any Lands that may hereafter be granted or otherwise conveyed to them for the purposes aforesaid, and again in the same style and title to convey the same as they may find necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and also in the same style and title to bring and maintain any action of trespass or ejectment or other action at Law or in Equity for, of or concerning any the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Estates and other Hereditaments hereby vested, or hereafter to become vested in them, under and by virtue of the provisions of this Act.

Act not to confer a greater title than remained in the Crown at the time of passing this Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be held or be construed to confer upon, or vest in, the said Principal Officers, by the title aforesaid, any greater or better Estate or Interest in any Lands in this Province than was vested in and remained in the Crown, or in any person or persons in trust for the Crown, at the time of the passing of this Act.

By His Excellency Sir WILLIAM MACBEAN GEORGE COLEBROOKE, K. H., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

W. M. G. COLEBROOKE.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears from an Inquest held before Robert Payne and John Gallagher, Esquires, two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the City and County of Saint John, on view of the body of John Allingham, deceased, that the said John Allingham came to his death by a blow on the right side of his head inflicted by some person unknown; I do therefore publish this Proclamation, and do hereby offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to whomsoever shall give such information to Her Majesty's Attorney General of the person or persons by whom the offence was committed, as will enable him to prosecute the offender or offenders to conviction.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the twenty third day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty five, and in the eighth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command.

A. READE.
