GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

THE Regulations for the granting and holding of Mill Reserves, ordered in Council in June last, having been in some degree modified, they are now published, as altered, for the information of all persons interested therein:—

1st.—That not more than 5,000 acres be reserved for each Gate.

2d.—No new Reserve to be granted, nor old Reserve continued, for a longer period than ten years, subject only to sale for actual settlement, but the same to be open for new applications at the expiration of the term for a continuation of the Reserve, upon good cause being shewn for preference to a renewal for the same Mill.

3d.—That no Logs or Timber of any kind be cut on the Reserves without Licence being granted and Mileage paid; and that every person holding such Reserves shall pay Mileage annually for the whole quantity so held, in default of which, he shall forfeit the Reserve.

4th.—That no Logs or Timber be cut or taken off any Reserve, except for the use of and manufacturing in the Mill for which the Reserve is made, on pain of forfeiture of the Reserve and of the Lumber so taken off.

5th.—That all present Reserves exceeding 5,000 acres to each Gate, shall be reduced to that amount, but the proprietors of the Mills for which such Reserves have been made shall be entitled to a preference to so much of the overplus as they may select and apply for Licence to cut on, as old ground; provided such application shall come in on or before the 31st day of December next.

6th.—That every person having a right to any present existing Reserve which exceeds the before mentioned limit of 5,000 acre
