[CIRCULAR.]

Downing Street, 27th May, 1846.

SIR,—It is my pleasing duty to announce to you, that on the afternoon of the 25th instant, at five minutes before three o'clock, the Queen was happily delivered of a Princess, to the great joy of the Nation and of all the Royal Family.

Her Majesty and the Infant Princess have, through Divine mercy, continued to do well up to the present time.

I have, &c.

(Signed)

W. E. GLADSTONE.

Lt. Governor Sir William Colebrooke, &c. &c. &c.

[From the London Gazette Extraordinary, May 25, 1846.]

Buckingham-Palace, May 25, 1846.

AT five minutes before three o'clock this afternoon, the Queen was happily delivered of a Princess. His Royal Highness Prince Albert, several Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bedchamber, being present.

This great and important news was immediately made known to the Town by the firing of the Park and Tower Guns; and the Privy Council being assembled as soon as possible thereupon, at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, it was ordered, that a Form of Thanksgiving for the Queen's safe delivery of a Princess, be prepared by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, to be used in all Churches and Chapels throughout England and Wales, and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, on Sunday the 31st of May, or the Sunday after the respective Ministers shall receive the same.

Her Majesty and the infant Princess are, God be praised, both doing well.

All Letters must be Post-paid.
