

have, during that period, experienced our trials and domestic afflictions, and you have sympathized and mourned with us as friends and Brethren,—finally you have presented to us a testimonial of your good will which has deeply affected our hearts:—and how have we earned all this?—Simply by following the line of conduct prescribed alike by a sense of Christian duty and natural disposition; by being just to all, and showing a little kindness to those who needed it without distinction of Creed, according to our limited opportunities and means.

Gentlemen, in one of my first addresses to you, I told you that unless you would give me your confidence and support, any efforts on my part to promote your interests must be unavailing: You frankly met my appeal—in other words, you did justice to the sincerity of the professions of my desire to devote myself to your service, and to identify myself with all your interests; and if the result has been satisfactory to you, to you belongs the merit in a far higher degree than any to which I can lay claim.

I told you that while it was contrary to my duty, as well toward my Sovereign as to yourselves, to attach myself exclusively to any Party, or even to recognize its existence, yet that duty required of me to identify myself with all classes, doing equal justice to each;—in these views, you, Gentlemen, have sustained me, and whatever of credit may attach to the result is yours.

You have been pleased to offer me your congratulations upon the transfer of my services to a more extended sphere of action. To your fellow subjects of that noble Province, I shall feel a pride in bearing this your Testimonial, in the most entire conviction that the principles (few and simple) by which my public conduct has been uniformly governed, and which have proved not otherwise than satisfactory to three of the five North American Colonies, will not be found to fail in their application to the fourth.

My Lord, Reverend and Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen,

For myself, Lady Harvey and my family, I bid you all an affectionate farewell, and I entreat you all to believe that our fervent prayers for the renewal of that prosperity which it has seemed good to the Almighty to interrupt for a season, may again return to you, and be long enjoyed.

J. HARVEY.

LOYALIST MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

At a Meeting of the Directors, at the House of Mr. Justice Parker, on Monday 10th August, 1846, on motion of the Rev. Mr. Halket, seconded by the Hon. C. Simonds, it was Resolved unanimously, That the Directors of the Loyalist Memorial Hospital, having ascertained that a strong feeling of opposition to their late proceedings exists in the community, and that so many grounds of objection have been raised as to render the success of the plan extremely doubtful, if not hopeless, are therefore constrained to suspend all further operations. They have the satisfaction of feeling, that in all that they have done they have been influenced by the purest motives, and have had solely in view the establishment of an institution which is acknowledged by all to be highly desirable, and would be calculated to confer inestimable benefits on the public. But having been thwarted in their object they are compelled to relinquish to others the task, which, had they been adequately supported, they would have been glad to accomplish.

Ordered, That the foregoing Resolution be published in the Newspapers of this City.

ANGLO AMERICAN,

Published every Saturday in New York.

THIS excellent Family Paper, the proprietors are desirous of circulating in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island; there being already an extensive subscription in Canada.—It consists of twenty four pages, published weekly, in a folio form, making 624 pages annually, a very convenient size for binding; and contains approved selections from the periodicals of the day, with a compendium of the most interesting Parliamentary Debates, and the general news of the week; but its conductors studiously avoid any interference with politics, particularly with those of the British Colonies, the discussion of which in a Paper published elsewhere, would be in bad taste and improper. The price is moderate—Four Dollars per annum, in advance, free of American postage; and the subscribers will this year be presented with a splendid mezzotint plate of the Duke of Wellington and Lord Nelson, which Mr. Edmund Ward, who is connected with the Paper, and who will visit New Brunswick next week, will bring with him for delivery to those persons throughout the Province who are disposed to confer on the Anglo American their patronage. Saint John, June 27, 1846.

FOREST LODGE FOR SALE.

AN opportunity is now offered for the purchase, on most reasonable terms, of that valuable property known as Forest Lodge, on the River Nashwaaksis, about five miles from Fredericton.

The property comprises two distinct Farms, containing in all about 875 acres of Land, nearly 200 of which are cleared and prepared for cultivation, a very large proportion of it being Interval Land on both sides of the Nashwaaksis Stream.

The Buildings are commodious, and have been erected at considerable expense; those on the front or River Farm, having alone cost nearly £700, and are admirably adapted for a Gentleman's Country residence. The House on the Royal Road Farm is a comfortable Dwelling House, finished in a plain and substantial manner.

The local advantages of the property are too numerous to be described in this Advertisement, and intending Purchasers are invited to examine the Land and Premises, when those advantages will be at once apparent.

The terms of Sale (which are peculiarly liberal) will be ascertained by application to William Wright, Esquire, Barrister at Law, in Saint John, or to Robert Gowan, in Fredericton.

DISSOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the title of Benjamin Beveridge and Co., at Tobique, County of Carleton, is this day dissolved by mutual consent: and all Debts due to the said Partnership are to be recovered by B. Beveridge; and all persons to whom the said Partnership are indebted, will hand in their Accounts to the said B. Beveridge for adjustment and payment. Dated at Fredericton, 31st October, 1845.

B. BEVERIDGE,
JAMES TAYLOR.

NOTICE.

I HEREBY caution any Person or Persons from purchasing a Note of Hand drawn by the Subscriber, in favor of one John M'Intosh, for £75, dated the 17th day of January last past, and payable the 20th day of June next, as no value has been received for the said Note.

St. Francis, 30th March, 1846.—tf. ROBERT KERR.

All Letters must be Post-paid.
