GENERAL ORDER.

Horse Guards, 1st June, 1847.

Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to command, that a Medal should be struck to record the services of Her Fleets and Armies during the wars commencing in 1793 and ending in 1814, and that one should be conferred upon every Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, and Soldier of the Army, who was present in any battle or siege, to commemorate which, medals had been struck by command of Her Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and had been distributed to the General or Superior Officers of the several Armies and Corps of Troops engaged, in conformity with the Regulations of the Service at that time in force; General and other Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, who consider that they have claims to receive this mark of their Sovereign's gracious recollection of their services, and of Her desire to record the same, are each to apply to the Secretary of the Board of General Officers, Whitehall, London, and to send, in writing, to the same Officer, a statement of his claim, for what action, at what period of time, and the names of the persons, or the titles of the documents by which the claim can be proved.

These claims are to be sent, by General Officers having such claims, through the hands of the Commander in Chief of the Army. The Staff Officers having such claims, through the General Officers under whom they served, if alive; if not alive, through the Adjutant General of the Army.

Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers of Regiments, Battalions, and Detachments, through the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Detachment at the time, if still alive. This will be known by inquiry at the Agents of the Regiment resident in London. If such Commanding Officer should not be alive, the application, in writing, must be sent through the Adjutant General of the Army.

The Board of General Officers is hereby, by Her Majesty's command, directed to take into consideration, to investigate the facts stated in each of these several applications, and to report to the Commander in Chief upon the same, for the information of Her Majesty, and to enable those commanded by Her Majesty to deliver to the claimants the medals accordingly.

The Adjutant General, and the Military Secretary of the Commander in Chief, will transmit to the Secretary of the Board of General Officers, such information as they may have been able to acquire, to assist in the investigations which the Board will have to make.

The Commander in Chief has been required to desire, that the Board of General Officers will have alphabetical lists made out, of the names of the claimants to one of these medals, with his rank, and the name of the particular battle or siege for which he claims to receive the same, inserted in the margin, and at which the Board of General Officers may consider that he was present.

The occasions for which medals have been granted by the Sovereign, are specified below for general information and guidance, as at page 73 of the Annual Army List.

By Command of Field Marshall the Duke of Wellington, Commander in Chief. JOHN MACDONALD, Adjutant General.
