N. H. DEVEBER, SHERIFF.

To the Clergy of the Church of England in the Diocese of Fredericton, New Brunswick.

FREDERICTON, April 27.

Reverend and Dear Brethren,

You are most of you, probably, aware, that in obedience to the commands of Her Majesty the Queen, His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury prepared a Form of Prayer, which was used in all Churches in England on the 24th of March last, being the day appointed for a Public and General Fast: Now, though it has pleased Almighty God, of His infinite and undeserved mercy, to exempt us from those heavy calamities under which our brethren are at this time suffering, yet Christian charity requires "that whatsoever any part of the world, yea any one of all our brethren elsewhere doth either suffer or fear, the same we should account as our own burden." It has been very properly suggested to me, that the three days immediately before Ascension-Day, commonly called Rogation-Days, for the solemn observance of which order is taken, and four Homilies provided by our own Church, would be most suitable occasions for solemn prayer and supplication to Almighty God for His gracious removal of these heavy calamities from our afflicted brethren, and for humble petitions that He would be pleased to spare us the infliction of these frightful miseries.

I would suggest to you, therefore, the propriety of calling the attention of your Parishioners, on Sunday the 9th of May, to the duty of fasting and supplication at this time. In some Parishes, probably, all the days might be observed; in others, where the population is very scattered, at least Wednesday the 12th of May might be set apart: there can be none in which some notice might not be taken of a calamity so appalling, and united prayer and supplication offered up.

I request that where any of these days is observed, you will read (in addition to the ordinary Prayers) either the whole of the Service usually read on Ash-Wednesday, or at the least, the Penitential Psalm, and the Prayers which follow, in that Service. The proper Psalms appointed by the Archbishop, viz: Ps. xxxii. xxxix. lxxvi. —the proper Lessons: 1 Kings, viii. 22 to 41, and Mathew vi. to verse 22; with the Epistle, Joel ii. 12 to 18; and the Gospel, Luke xiii. 1 to 10; seem equally suitable in our own case. The Prayers in time of Dearth and Famine, in the Prayer Book, with the smallest alteration, are also appropriate.

I earnestly recommend these suggestions to your pious zeal, and commending you all to the blessing of that God who heareth and answereth prayer,

I am,
Reverend and Dear Brethren,
Your faithful friend and brother,

JOHN FREDERICTON.
